Somber observance held at unique memorial at Olive Branch Cemetery

By Al Stilley
Editor

On a somber morning with a slight drizzle of rain, about two dozen Southsiders observed a moment of silence Friday at a unique 9/11 memorial in Greenwood.

The quiet remembrance featured the ringing of a memorial bell six times, the placing of memorial flowers, a moment of silence, the playing of "Taps," and then attendees walked by and paused at the memorial in silence.

Johnson County Sheriff Duane Burgess and deputies Jeremy Witherington and Alex Talley participated in the ringing of the memorial bell, signifying the timetable of Sept. 11, 2001 as the hijacked jetliners crashed into the Twin Towers and the Pentagon as well as the crash into the ground at Shanksville, Pa.

White River Township Fire Chief Jeremy Pell and Indianapolis Fire Department firefighter Jonathan Raker placed a wreath at the memorial. Bob Tuttle of VFW Post 5824 played "Taps."

The ceremony attracted guests of all ages who were able to touch the beam and observe the eternal flame.

The 9/11 Memorial is located in The Gardens at Olive Branch Cemetery, 1605 S. State Road 135, Greenwood, next to the G.H. Herrmann Greenwood Funeral Home.

The 9/11 Memorial was developed by G.H. Herrmann executive Jeff N. Herrmann a few years after the tragic attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

$20,000 PAYDAY FOR JESSE TUNNY

Southsider Jesse Tunny enjoys the spoils of victory, including the winner's prize of $20,000, after capturing the 44th annual World Figure-8 Championship three-hour endurance race Saturday at the Indianapolis Speedrome. Tunny took the lead on lap 176 and finished with 461 laps completed.

Greenwood's Mike Hadley Jr., the 2017 winner, started seventh and moved into second place but was outed in an accident on lap 228.

Becomes sixth family member to win

Jesse Tunny finally joined five other Tunny family members as the World Figure-8 champion. The Tunny family has captured 11 of the last 21 high-speed three-hour endurance races. Jesse joins brothers Ben and Austin and their late father, Bill Tunny Jr., as winners along with Jesse's uncle Bruce Tunny and cousin Mark Tunny. Bruce and Ben are three-time winners. "We had a good clean race and we finally won it," Jesse Tunny said. Defending winner Eddie VanMeter was second, followed by Arte Ware, Matt Smith, and Cory Harmon in the 42-driver field. Record six-time winner Jack Dossey Jr., was 15th.

Two-time race winner Mark Tunny started from pole position after qualifying with an event record lap of 15.738 seconds.

FRANKLIN CENTRAL 2020 GRADUATE

Gowan receives Stamps Scholarship at Purdue University

Annie Gowan, Franklin Central High School Class of 2020, is the recipient of a Stamps Scholarship at Purdue University. She is a biochemistry major. Gowan enjoys dancing and has competed in the CRU National Dance Competition with a performance that was choreographed by FCHS alumnus Valerie Rockey. Gowan is among 267 of the nation's top students to receive a Stamps Scholarship, the largest number of recipients in its history with awards amounting to $44 million with students at 34 partner universities. Over 263,000 students applied for scholarships. The Stamps Scholarship covers the full cost of a bachelor's degree and provides up to $10,000 in enrichment funds to cover expenses for summer research internships, and professional academic conferences to present research posters, Purdue study abroad programs and unpaid internships or co-ops. The scholarship is funded by the Stamps Family Charitable Foundation and was established at Purdue University in 2011.

Perry Township Schools

Suicide Prevention Awareness Month

September is National Suicide Prevention Awareness Month.

As the pandemic adds another layer of anxiety and stress on people of all ages, the importance of managing mental health has become even more critical. Perry Township Schools has a dedicated team of social workers and counselors who are helping students at every grade level show empathy to peers who may be having a tough time.

Mary Bryan fifth-grade teacher Mike Eads has several heartbreaking connections to mental illness. His brother took his life last year. Mental illness also claimed the lives of his neighbor, as well as his daughter's classmate. As the Perry Schools educator reflected on the heartbreak and sadness of the tragedy, he was reminded of how important it is to let people know they matter.

Eads has been handing out kindness cards to students who look sad or upset. Students appreciate the gesture and regularly ask for a card to give to someone they love. One student even shared how a small note helped cheer up a family member going through personal struggles. The same student even wrote thoughtful letters for each classmate to highlight positive traits that she liked about them.

The kindness cards are used to pass the love to others and to open lines of communication. The entire school has rallied around the movement. Teachers and students even wear matching T-shirts emblazoned with "You Matter." Kindness is emphasized every day, not just Suicide Prevention Awareness Month.

Social workers at Perry Meridian and Southport High Schools also are supporting the social-emotional needs of our students. They are working to dispel myths and remove the stigma surrounding mental health challenges. Relationship building during a pandemic is a critical part of maintaining connectedness to help students feel safe and supported while navigating the disruption caused by COVID-19. As students arrive to and depart from school, they are greeted with signs that remind them not to give up. They are also reminded continually that counselors and social workers are there to help when they need it.

Perry Township Schools is committed to promoting social-emotional resilience in the classroom to lay a foundation for safe and positive learning. We want to empower students with the tools to thrive during these unprecedented times and beyond.

If you or someone you know is experiencing an emergency, call 911 immediately. If you are experiencing depression or having suicidal thoughts, visit 1-800-273-TALK (8255). Anyone who is trying to support a loved one in crisis should visit afsp.org.

SPECIAL EDGEWOOD EVENTS

The activities that were so much of the lives for the students and parents that attended Edgewood Grade School have been so wonderfully allowed to remain as part of our lives because of Ted Lobdell and Barry Hix.

I believe our first Edgewood Grade School reunion was in 2011 with a couple of reunions since. Each reunion allows former students and teachers to reconnect and share wonderful memories.

A few years ago, the Perry Township/Southport Historical Society became involved in building a basketball hall of fame that recognizes former players with ties to Edgewood Grade School, including Frank Kautsky, who owned a grocery store in Edgewood and the first professional basketball team in Indiana.

Many guys took advantage and enjoyed playing on the outside basketball courts on the Edgewood Grade School property. Talented players took part in 3-on-3 basketball games. Players considered for the hall of fame must have played for Edgewood or on the outdoor courts. The candidates must have played high school, college and played professionally, coached, or in some way earned money with a basketball-related position.

(SUBMITTED PHOTOS)

Ron Browning trying a 3-pointer.

A couple of years ago, rumors started popping up about the possibility of a basketball goal being placed on the old Edgewood Grade School property. Ted and Barry worked with the staff from the local union hall that owns the property and got permission to install a basketball goal again.

With the project underway, Ron Browning and I thought it would be a special memory to know the last person to score a basket on the property. A few weeks ago, we met on the old Edgewood property on a Sunday afternoon. We brought a portable goal and a basketball.

We set it up in the large parking lot and began having fun. One of the photos taken shows the basketball heading to the rim – the last basket scored on the former school grounds. We think that the last person to score before the new goal was installed was either Ron or myself – history in the making.

Fred Shonk finishing a slamdunk.

Two special events are coming up to commemorate Edgewood games.

This coming weekend (Sunday, Sept.20) Lobdell and Hix will co-host the Edgewood Memorial Open softball game on the softball field at the old Edgewood property. (More information is on Page One of this edition.)

The following week, a dedication for the new basketball goal will take place. The main cornerstone of the main grade school building also will be placed near the new goal that has been cared for by George Ellis, a former Edgewood student.

We are looking forward to these two Edgewood weekends.

Final shot on its way in…. who took that last shot???

RONCALLI SPIRIT OF YOUTH AWARD RECIPIENTS

Seven Roncalli High School students are recipients of the Catholic Youth Organization (CYO) Spirit of Youth awards. The students, including the grade school attended, are: Ali Dafforn, Ss. Francis and Clare; Celeste Gorball, St. Roch; Patrick Luttrell, St. Roch; and Roncalli graduates Class of 2020 Cassidy Cross, St. Mark; Olivia Hornek, St. Mark; Sydney Silcox, Nativity; and Sarah Wulf, Good Shepherd. The Spirit of Youth Award is presented to teens who have exhibited a commitment to volunteerism and perform outstanding service within the parish for those in need and in the larger community. The awards will be presented at each of their parishes. Roncalli principal Chuck Weisenbach commended the students for partnering with parents and parishes in the education and faith formation of young people and for being ambassadors for their family, parish and Roncalli.

A retrospective glance at the Southside

From The Spotlight and The Southsider Voice

60 Years Ago This Week - 1960

The Westinghouse Laundromat, 1245 Shelby St., charged 20 cents to wash and a dime to dry a 9-pound load of laundry.

* * *

Kaspar Furniture, 860 Virginia Ave., was holding a fire-and-smoke sale, the result of a large warehouse fire.

* * *

The Speedway Gospel Messengers were in concert at the Indianapolis Bible Center, 1827 S. Meridian St.

50 Years Ago This Week - 1970

Melanie Tatum was appointed worthy adviser of Southport Assembly No.10 Order of the Rainbow for Girls.

* * *

Southport High School junior Donna Tilford was named the Indiana State Fair's drum major champion.

* * *

Interstate Jobbers, a discount clothing store at 3335 Madison Ave., boasted that its greatest sale ever was underway, with suits priced from $35.

40 Years Ago This Week - 1980

John F. Stillabower and Steven L. Parrett served as lance corporals in the Marines.

* * *

G.H. Herrmann Funeral Home, 5141 Madison Ave., was honored by the Citizens Forum Beautification Committee for revitalizing its landscape.

* * *

Marty's Restaurant & Lounge, 4056 S. Keystone Ave., served all-you-can eat spaghetti and catfish dinners for $1.50 and $3.99, respectively.

30 Years Ago This Week - 1990

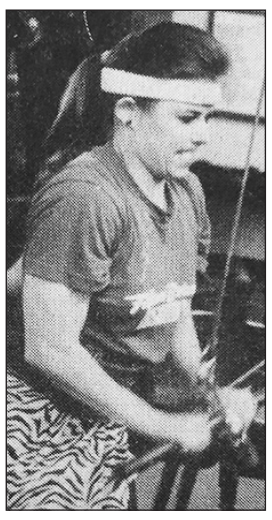
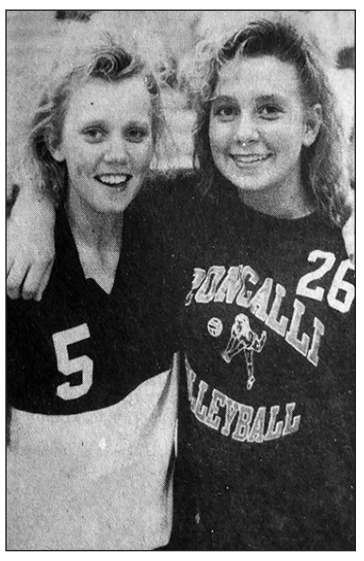
The historic fountain in Fountain Square celebrated its 101st birthday.



Robin Heldman, a dainty powerlifter at Ardizzone & Nalley Gym, 8057 Madison Ave., and the wife of Roger Heldman, trained five days a week. Pound per pound, she was one of the strongest women in Indiana.



Nicole (left) and Christy Cothron, varsity volleyball players at Southport and Roncalli, respectively, and the daughters of Chuck and Maris Cothron, declared peace after their match, which was won by the Rebels.

* * *

20 Years Ago This Week - 2000

Southport Putt-Putt, 1936 Southport Road, hosted its annual tournament.

* * *

The German-American Klub, 8602 S. Meridian St., renamed its restaurant to Edelweiss, a tribute to the Edelweiss Singing Society, which performed at the facility from 1939 until the mid-1970s.

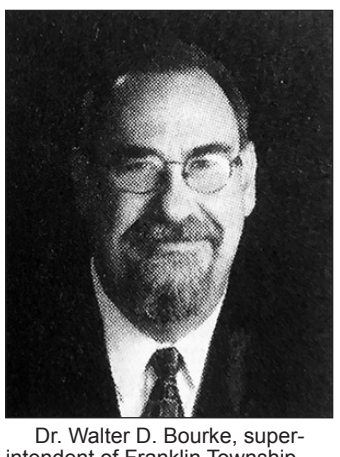
* * *

Roncalli running back Richie Nalley scored the Rebels' lone touchdown in a 33-7 loss to Moeller of Cincinnati, a perennial powerhouse from the Buckeye State. "We played a better team, and we got beat by a better team," said Roncalli coach Bruce Scifres.

* * *

The starting pay for a cashier at Shapiro's Deli, 808 S. Meridian St., was between $7 and $8 an hour.

University of Indianapolis athletics director Suzanne C. Willey, seen in her office, was marveled by the construction of a practice field at the school for the 2012 Super Bowl. The facility, including a domed indoor track, was to become a permanent part of the campus.



Dr. Walter D. Bourke, superintendent of Franklin Township Schools, was named Indiana's District V Superintendent of the Year, qualifying for the national competition.

10 Years Ago This Week - 2010

King and queen candidates for Beech Grove High School's homecoming were (front) Nick Quimby, Sara Bradley, Trinity Summitt, Eli Ralston; (middle row) Ali Hamilton, Ariel Hogston, Tara Dilk, Rhianna Wallen, Zoey Spengler; (back) Jordan Ison, Brandon Garduno, Nick Roberts, Alex Louzon and Kyle Frye.

9/11 remembrance

The memorial is believed to be the only one in the U.S. with artifacts from the three sites where tragedy struck almost simultaneously Sept. 11, 2001.

A steel beam from World Trade Center I is the focal point of the memorial that also features leftover limestone from rebuilding the Pentagon and constructing the 9/11 Memorial in New York City and soil from the Pennsylvania crash site.

Herrmann had been in New York City one month before the attack on the World Trade Center that killed 2,753 victims when the buildings collapsed. He returned to New York City for the fifth anniversary of the attack in 2006. He became inspired to construct a 9/11 Memorial in Greenwood.

Construction of the plaza and 9/11 Memorial began four years later after Herrmann acquired artifacts from each site. The late Sen. Richard G. Lugar expedited the acquisition of a beam from one of the towers.

The 9/11 Memorial plaza at The Gardens is surrounded by the cemetery's Field of Fallen heroes.

Three plaques are at the base of the memorial that describe the events of 9/11 at the Pentagon, Twin Towers, and Shanksville, Pa.

At the Pentagon, the highest-ranking military officer killed was Lt. Gen. Timothy G. Maude, 53, an Indianapolis native, whose widow is Greenwood native Teri Campbell. They have two daughters. Maude, a three-star general, is credited with the "Army of One" recruiting theme. Two military buildings in Heidelberg, Germany and at Camp Casey, Korea are named in Maude's honor.

The 9/11 Memorial at the Gardens at Olive Branch Cemetery is open to the public.

HOROSCOPE: It's in the stars!

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) You might need to get more facts to help you work out those problems with your new project. As always, a friendly approach shows the charming Arian at his or her persuasive best.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Information is what energizes ambition, and this is a good time for the ambitious Bovine to expand his or her range of knowledge and to be ready for the challenges that lie ahead.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) This is a good time to consider making some long-overdue decorating changes at home or in your workplace. A splash of color can help raise spirits, even on the grayest day.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Learn more. Earn more. That's the formula for Moon Children looking to expand their career horizons. Investigate the best places to get those training courses you'll need.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your creative side helps gain attention for many of your ideas. But don't neglect the practical aspects involved in implementing their move from paper to production. Good luck.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A health problem should not be ignored. The sooner you check it out, the sooner you can deal with it and then move on. Some job advice comes from an unlikely source.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A relationship takes an unexpected shift that could leave you puzzled and hurt. Asking for an explanation could help uncover the reason for this sudden turn of events.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) Your busy schedule has drawn down much of your energy levels. Restore them by spending a well-earned time out enjoying the arts -- perhaps with that special someone.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Make that presentation with confidence. Remember: When you show you believe in yourself, it helps persuade others that you truly know what you're doing.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Although you usually prefer doing things on your own, a group effort might be advisable at this time. Try to keep an open mind about suggestions from colleagues.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) This could be a good time to reassess some of your recent decisions and see if any adjustments should be made based on facts that you might have just uncovered.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) An emotionally charged situation creates uncertainty about the future of your relationship. Best advice: Talk things out while there's still time to reach a new understanding.

BORN THIS WEEK: You tend to act on matters of principle despite what others might advise.

Hornets say goodbye to 'The Pit' with league win

By Al Stilley
Editor

Beech Grove's Hornets said goodbye to 'The Pit' Friday night with great anticipation of playing on the high school's first artificial turf field Sept. 25.

The Hornets squeezed out a 17-14 win against Indiana Crossroads rival Scecina in a defensive duel at the middle school field while the new Teachers Credit Union Field is readied on campus. Beech Grove is 2-2 in league play, while Scecina stands at 2-1 in the league and 2-2 overall.

Seniors Ayden Brooks ran for 125 yards, and quarterback Gavin Mitchell ran for one TD and passed for another one. Mitchell completed 15 of 27 passes for 149 yards and also rushed for 99 yards.

The Hornets capitalized on two Scecina miscues.

Mitchell scored from the 1 for a 7-0 lead in the first quarter after a fumble recovery by Jaden Mullins. BG's second TD, a 47-yard scoring pass from Mitchell to Jordan Murphy, came with only 48.4 seconds left in the first half. That score was set up when Damonte Henderson intercepted a Crusader pass on his 37 and ran it back to the Scecina 27.

The TD capped a Hornets 10-0 surge that included freshman Mike Fonseca's 20-yard field goal for a 10-7 lead.

The scoring ended and the tension began after Scecina closed to 17-14 in the third quarter.

BG's defense tightened and stopped four drives by the Crusaders, the last one for only 19 yards in seven plays that ended when Damon Tompkins hit Ray's throwing arm on an attempted fourth-down pass.

"I'm proud of the way we bounced back this week after the way we lost our last game (48-44)," BG coach Mark Weller said. "We had a great week of practice and we were really focused tonight."

Defensively, the Hornets defensive line and backs held the Crusaders scoreless for the last 21 minutes, 19 seconds under pressure.

200TH WIN FOR CG'S MOORE

Undefeated Center Grove, 6A No. 1, dominated host Ben Davis, 35-12, and presented Trojans coach Eric Moore with his 200th victory as the program's winningest coach. Running back Carson Steele scored three TDs to become the school's all-time rushing TD leader. Moore is 200-72 at CG since 1999. CG had held opponents scoreless for 11 consecutive quarters until the Giants scored twice in the fourth quarter.

NO. 1 LUTHERAN ROLLS

Unbeaten Lutheran, 1A, No. 1, spread the wealth while stuffing visiting Shortridge, 79-0. The Saints led 39-0 at the end of the first quarter. Quarterback Blake White, completed 7 of 8 passes for 144 yards, including three TDs. Junior Montasi Clay, one of five running backs, gained 77 yards on four carries and was one of seven Saints to score at least one TD. Junior Jake Pasch had seven tackles.

Roncalli's Baron Huebler scored three TDs, gaining 179 yards on 29 carries, to lead the Rebels to a 31-27 road win at Columbus North. Mooresville handled visiting Greenwood, 41-13, with Woodman running back Ethan Huessig scoring one TD and gaining 95 yards. Plainfield dominated Perry Meridian, 42-7, and Crispus Attucks downed Manual, 30-18. Southport was idle for the third time.

Beech Grove coach Mark Weller congratulates the Hornets for a hard-fought 17-14 win Friday against visiting Scecina.

FRIDAY GAMES (7 p.m., unless noted) – Avon (1-3) at Franklin Central (1-3); Beech Grove (2-2) at Washington (1-2); Chatard (3-1) at Southport (0-1); Guerin Catholic (1-1) at Roncalli (2-1), 7:30 p.m.; Lutheran (4-0) at Cascade (1-3); Manual (0-3) at Scott County, Ky., 7:30 p.m.; North Central (4-0) at Center Grove (4-0); Perry Meridian (0-4) at Whiteland (3-1); Plainfield (2-2) at Greenwood (2-2).

TENNIS

Center Grove won the Johnson County boys' championship, 4-1, against Whiteland, Thursday. No. 2 Luke Embrey and No. 3 Seth Jasek each won singles matches. The doubles teams of No. 1 Carson Contos and Landen Finlinson and No. 2 Glenn Swaney and Bennett Strain swept their matches. In a Southside duel, Roncalli defeated Southport, 4-1, Sept. 9, with a singles sweep by Tyler Schofield, Ty Ransburg, and Nathan Fikes. The No. 2 doubles team of Josh Wormann and Cole Elzea won.

SOCCER

Southport dominated Decatur Central, 7-0, Sept. 8 with Patric Oberc scoring two goals and having an assist. Albert Thang scored a goal and had two assists. The Cardinals led 3-0 at the end of the first period. Franklin Central upended visiting Zionsville, 1-0, in a hard-fought Hoosier Crossroads matchup Sept. 8. Ethan Lotterer scored the lone goal; goalkeeper Paul Hippleheuser had nine saves. Greenwood's girls had two shutouts in a row, defeating visiting Herron, 6-0, as Emily Metzger scored two goals, and two days later, shut down Lutheran, 8-0, with Metzger and Olivia Brawley each scoring twice.

Unselfish Egenolf sparks CG volleyball team

By Al Stilley
Editor

Try and give credit to unselfish junior Katie Egenolf for the improved play of the Center Grove volleyball team and she immediately begins praising her teammates.

"I would definitely say my teammates are my backbone," the Trojans standout said. "We play so well together that it helps me succeed."

Success began slowly for this year's Trojans who won only one of their first five matches, but have won seven of their last nine, including a 3-0 sweep Sept. 10 of rival Perry Meridian in Vandermeer Gymnasium.

Egenolf led the way against the Falcons with 21 kills with senior setter Jenna Otto making 31 assists. Senior Grace Boggess had 10 kills.

"Katie is our sparkplug," Trojans coach Chris Due said. "When our passing is good, we're able to give her better situations to attack with the ball."

Egenolf leads in kills with 154. Otto has 305 assists. Senior defensive specialist Rylie McMahen leads with 109 digs. Boggess, a senior, has 105 kills. The senior Trojans include defensive specialists Emma Goss and Kaitlyn Kennedy.

Egenolf, equally adept in the front or back row, talks first about her teammates and very little about herself.

"Our seniors are great," she said. "Rylie always has my back and boosts me up; Grace, in the middle, hits shots on the dime after dime; and Jenna, my setter, is amazing. I would not be able to hit the ball like I do without her. Emma comes in with great serves, and Kaitlyn is great defensively."

Enough said about others.

The Trojans rallied 'round Egenolf after a slow start against Perry Meridian. The first set was tied five times before three kills by Egenolf pushed the Trojans ahead 23-19. CG won 25-23.

In the second set, Egenolf's kill put the Trojans up 15-10. Her strong hit was too hot for PM to handle for the final point, 25-19. The Falcons coasted 25-14 in the third set.

Perry Meridian was led by seniors GraceAnn Hartman with 13 kills, Makalyn Miller 12 digs, and Claire Morris and Molly Shannon, each 12 assists.

"When we pass the ball well, we win matches; when we struggle passing, we lose matches," coach Due observed. "When we get our passing going, we're able to give Katie better situations, and we can run our middle (Boggess), too."

Due attributed the Trojans' slow start to putting different players together after graduating nine seniors and placing more emphasis on skills than team orientation. He has used a 10-player rotation to provide plenty of playing time and versatility.

"We had a rocky start, but we're still improving," Egenolf said. "The more reps we get helps us to mesh as a team, and we're finally showing it on the court."

On the Southside Class 1A Greenwood Christian, led by Izzy Reed's 24 kills defeated 4A Mooresville, 3-1, Monday. Riley Ratliff had 36 assists. Last week, the Cougars upended rival Waldron, 3-1, and swept Indiana Deaf School, 3-0, behind Ratliff's 29 aces Saturday during homecoming day.

Roncalli (11-4) defeated rival Ritter, 3-0, with Olivia Murphy making 14 kills.

GOLF

Center Grove's girls team defeated two top-10 ranked teams Sept. 9 at The Legends. Meg Fosnot shot a 33 (9 holes) to lead the Trojans over Columbus North and Franklin. CG fired a 146, nine shots less than the Bulldogs. Greenwood Christian upended Covenant Christian, 214-216, with Ashtyn Witte shooting a 47.
