DC spikers learning as they go

Tandace Joseph

Staff report

Decatur Central opened its volleyball season with two tough opponents, but the Hawks were not dismayed. The Hawks started by playing Southport, falling by scores of 17-25 13-25 and 13-25. "The strength of our play came from our front line tonight," noted first-year head coach Tandace Joseph. "We had several blocks, which gave our team the spark they needed. "It was a good experience for the girls to be challenged by Southport's shot selection. It forces us to develop into a better skilled team." Junior Miranda Woodard had six kills and four solo blocks. Madi Padgett, a sophomore, had three kills and three assist blocks. Junior Jaynie Tweedy helped with five assists. Freshman Mackenzie Cummings added five assists and six digs. According to Joseph, all three Hawk teams played Perry Meridian on Tuesday.

JV Blue experienced its first play of the season. Scores were 15-25 and 17-25. "Jayna Bruce was a standout with her overall play and leadership," Joseph noted. "JV Gold's scores were 24-25 and 21-25. The whole team played well together. "The varsity started out strong, but could not maintain this momentum, falling 21-25, 15-25 and 14-25." Setter Tweedy had 13 assists and three service aces. Woodard totaled 12 kills. Lili Quintana, yet another junior, had 15 serve-received perfect passes, while Cummings dived to six digs. The Hawks return to action tonight (Wednesday) when they host Ben Davis in a 6:30 p.m. nonconference match. They then take a break from competition before returning to Mid-State Conference play when they travel to Whiteland at 6:30 on Aug. 29. That's the first of three back-to-back matches. The Hawks travel to Ritter on Aug. 30 and to Pike on Aug. 31. "We are a young team," said Joseph, "and we look forward to the season to unleash our potential."

Hawk comeback stuns Bull Dogs

By Steve Page

Now that was a fast finish and great way to start the football season. Decatur Central, trailing 14-3 with time winding down in Friday's game at Columbus North, rallied for 15 points and pulled out an 18-14 victory. With plenty of help, sophomore quarterback Bo Polston scored the winning touchdown with six seconds to play. "A great team win," Hawk coach Kyle Enright said Sunday. "Our offense dominated the second half. Our defense dominated all of the game, and special teams made huge plays. "Our offense got going in the second half and scored two touchdowns in the fourth, including the game winner. It was a one-yard quarterback sneak behind Javian Jones, Alec Surber, Nathan Calahan, Tyler Cooper and Cayden Cole, with (halfback) Halbert Aguirre moving Bo and the pile into the end zone." The comeback was just what the Hawk coaches were seeking. "One of our weaknesses last season was finishing games strong," Enright said. "We preached 'finish' all offseason and summer, and it paid off. Our kids never quit, they stayed together, and they battled through fatigue to get the job done when it mattered most." They put up good numbers as well. Polston completed 8 of 24 passes for 89 yards, with one touchdown and one interception. He also gained 27 yards on 13 carries, including the final TD. Senior wide receiver Chris Richmond caught four passes for 78 yards, including a 48-yarder from Polston that drew the Hawks to within 14-12. DC also featured a balanced rushing attack. N'Po Dodo gained 65 yards on eight carries, KC Berry had 35 yards on seven rushes, Carter had four carries for 25 yards and Aguirre had 24 yards on four attempts. Junior kicker/punter Ashton Vogel, was, as Enright noted, a "major weapon." He kicked 45- and 39-yard field goals, the latter bringing the Hawks to within 14-6. He averaged 41 yards per punt and four of his kickoffs went into the end zone for touchbacks. After managing just 78 yards in the first half, the Hawks finished with 275 yards of offense. The defense played its part, blanking the Bull Dogs over the final three quarters. Leading defenders included Aguirre, Stephen Oyatayo, Brycen Bonawitt, Breydon LaFollette, Kasmir Hicks, Mykul Campbell, Fa'Real Carter and Brandon Vinson. "It took some time to get adjusted to Friday night football," Enright noted. "We had eight sophomore starters, including six on offense, and 14 players were making their first appearance under the Friday night lights. "I'm very proud of our leadership from our coaching staff and from our kids. They didn't panic when adversity struck, and that's a great sign for the future." The Hawks return to Devere Fair Stadium on Friday to host New Palestine at 7 p.m.

STEVE JEFFRIS

Popular entertainer to celebrate 50-year career Monday with commemorative performance at Mikie's Pub

By Al Stillely
Editor

The best advice solo entertainer Steve Jeffris ever heard came from fabled country singer Red Slovine. With dreams of making it in Nashville, Jeffris journeyed from the Southside to Music City USA with a guitar and high hopes around three decades ago. He had played with several bands in Indy and elsewhere and was seeking a career as a country music artist.

- CAREER HIGHLIGHTS
- First paying gig: 15 years old in summer 1973.
 - First band: 16 years old.
 - First recording: 17 years old.
 - Recordings: 29 albums over four decades.
 - Fulltime entertainer: Solo career began in 1990 locally after being with several bands.
 - Independent: Self-managed, recorded and booked.
 - Travel: 25,000 shows, 2.5 million miles traveled.

In Nashville, he met and joined many artists on stage in and around Music Row and historic Broadway Avenue. Slovine had several hits during the CB trucker song and movie craze of the 1970s. As Jeffris remembers, Slovine told him, factually, "If you can't make it first in your hometown, you're not going to make it in Nashville or anywhere." Jeffris, who was given a guitar for Christmas before he was four years old, recalled, "When you're young, you can't hardly wait to get to Nashville. I went from band to band down there, but he (Slovine) encouraged me to work on building a following and a career. So, that's how I approached it and realized that to make a living at this, I had to be a single act, not have a band, and build a reputation and a following." In the midst of music memorabilia at his home in Franklin Township, Jeffris then said, "If you can make a living at this, then you have won the game." His smooth baritone voice, guitar playing talent, and variety of songs from all genres has won over thousands upon thousands of fans and has enabled him to approach a milestone in his 50-year career. Jeffris, who has performed throughout Central Indiana and the USA, will present his 50th anniversary show Monday, Aug. 28, 5 p.m. to 8 p.m. at Mikie's Pub, 5135 S. Emerson Ave. He was 15 years old when he was paid for his first local gig in summer 1973.

Steve Jeffris relaxes with his guitar on the grounds of his Franklin Township home, appropriately called Jeffris Junction. The property includes a restored 1908 B&O caboose, in background, an 1800's jail, and a replica train depot. Jeffris Junction served as the site of the Steve Jeffris Fan Club's Caboose Festival from 1990 through 2015.

Throughout his three-hour performance, Jeffris also takes time to learn about his audience that enjoys this legendary Southside entertainer, vocalist, guitarist, and songwriter. He and his wife Sharon also bring fresh vegetables from their garden for their fans.

Through the late 1980's, Jeffris had worked as a pipe tubing manufacturer's sales representative who knew sales and how to talk to people. His solo career grew as his shows connected with fans.

His hometown path was cemented in the early 1990's ironically when an agent in Nashville offered him a golden opportunity to be the opening summer touring act for an up-and-coming new country singer for $1,000 per concert for 40 dates.

"I had offers to open for several Nashville singers," Jeffris recalled. "I was already doing well here (locally) and once you reach a certain level, you have to expand and cast aside those who helped you. So I told him that opening would be ideal for a younger entertainer with no family. I didn't do it. I don't say that was a mistake at all – it was the right thing to do."

The singer who was to embark on his first tour was young Garth Brooks.

Earlier this month, Jeffris reminisced about his successful career at the family's rural home, called Jeffris Junction; there's a connection with trains and country music. The acreage also displays his interest in trains with a restored 1908 B&O caboose and an 1800's jail, replica of a train depot, the cab portion of a 1949 diesel locomotive, an 1800's pioneer cabin that is a replica of his wife's grandmother's cabin in Hazard, Ky. Two limestones from the original cabin are part of the fireplace.

After his experiences in Nashville, he returned to the Southside and sought to record independently with no agent and no long cross-country tours.

"When you do that, you're not going to be in the big picture, but you can still make a living at it," said Jeffris whose first two albums that were recorded locally featured big vehicles and big letters for collectors. He has recorded 29 albums during his 50-year career. Bill Ciriello's famed Cadillac convertible, familiar to Beech Grove Promoters Club parade goers, was on an album cover. Historically, the albums run from vinyl, 8-track, cassettes, and compact discs.

Jeffris estimates that he has performed over 25,000 shows and traveled 2.5 million miles as a solo entertainer.

He has performed at fairs, festivals, and special events throughout the Midwest, including the Indiana State Fair and Wanamaker Old Settlers Day. Throughout the years, he has had regular shows at Harry C's, Gallagher's, Clarion Hotel Plaza at the waterfront, American Legion Post 34, Plump's Last Shot, Fort Ben Pub.

Each winter from January through March, he performs a heavy schedule of concert dates in Florida.

"We love the wintertime shows in Florida," Jeffris said. "The 'snowbird circuit' isn't clam shacks on the beach; it's at the larger clubhouses and outdoor stages at the large parks and RV campgrounds. We've had NASCAR drivers at our shows at the Daytona Drive-In theater on the beach."

From 1990 through 2015, Jeffris and his wife Sharon were the gracious hosts of the Caboose Festival gathering of 1,000 fan club members and their guests each year at Jeffris Junction with many Nashville singers performing during a day of free food and entertainment. Stonewall Jackson and Tommy Cash (Johnny Cash's brother) were among guest performers at the Caboose Festival.

The fan club featured a newsletter, Christmas party, all sorts of memorabilia, and a fan club button for members in the U.S. and Canada. The newsletter is edited by Southsider and fan club president Vicky Niccum. Each 25-year member received a commemorative railroad spike. The fan club still gathers annually for their Christmas Party.

The caboose itself is one of two facilities with music memorabilia. It has served as an office, a recording studio, guesthouse, playhouse but basically serves as a railroad and country music museum with autographed photos of George Jones, George Strait, David Frizzell, NASCAR legend Richard Petty and more stars. A wall plaque also has the names of Caboose Festival honorees who served as entertainers, sponsors, and volunteers. His mother's fan club vest with yearly membership patches hangs on a wall in the caboose.

He and wife Sharon (Griffis) have been married for 40 years. They have two grown children, 13 grandchildren and one great grandson. Sharon retired in January 2022 after a 29-year career as a patient advocate at Franciscan Hospital on the Southside.

"This business is not easy; it's ongoing," Jeffries said honestly. "You have to have a crowd when you perform; if not, it's not going to work as a career. We have been very lucky, very blessed. We have become friends with many country stars, and they have expressed how fortunate I am; some would like to trade places."

"The music, the entire package, has created so many friendships with fans, like we're all family – just because we have worked this in our hometown area."

Steve Jeffris acknowledges our military veterans with special recognition at his performances. Recently at Mikie's Pub on the Southside, Jeffris performs the military medley as veterans are honored by those in attendance.

Personal Recollections By Fred Shonk

BGMS Visual Arts Teacher Jonee Sutton

Back in 2001, I came out of my short retirement and began driving a school bus for Beech Grove City Schools. I quickly learned just how most everyone on staff enjoyed their positions. Every day they are assisting in making Beech Grove City Schools a special school system for students, parents and the entire staff.

I am still connected with several of the teachers, administration staff, bus drivers, former students and parents. We get together for breakfast and lunch. We sometimes visit each other over the phone and lots of us are friends on Facebook.

A few days ago, I found out that a middle school teacher was a top 10 finalist for the Indiana Teacher of the Year. Jonee Adamson-Sutton is the visual arts teacher at the middle school.

I believe that I met Jonee during the 2004 school year. She was teaching at one of the schools that I drove students to and from each day. She was always very helpful to the students as they arrived at school and in the afternoons as they were headed home on a school bus.

I did some quick research and found out that there are over 1,750 schools in Indiana. There are also about 63,000 licensed teachers in our state. Jonee is one of them and is being recognized and honored.

I pulled up Jonee's Facebook page and discovered that she is planning a nine-day trip to Japan. This trip is open to all 7th grade to senior students and parents (at time of travel). The travel dates will be during spring break of 2025. She is holding the first parent meeting on Thursday, Aug. 31 at Beech Grove Middle School.

Jonee has a good bit more information about the Japan trip on her Facebook page. She also has pictures and information about class projects and some of her other projects. There are several.

I believe that Jonee and our now departed dog, Stuart, were pretty good friends. Stuart was friends with many teachers and students at Beech Grove Schools. As I was looking at Jonee's Facebook account, I saw that she has a pet painting business. I told my wife, Lyn about that and she is gathering photographs.

Jonee's husband is also a teacher. They even work in the same school system and building. There is a Facebook video of Jonee and a student singing Happy Birthday to Mr. Sutton.

Can you imagine being ranked in the Top 10 of a group numbering more than 60,000? I feel very honored to be friends with so many of the staff and students from Beech Grove City Schools.

Congratulations, Jonee!

Shonk is a 1960 graduate of Southport High School, a '63 grad of Indiana Central College (now the University of Indianapolis) and a retired bus driver from Beech Grove Schools. He can be reached through email at fdshonk@aol.com.

60 Years Ago This Week — 1963
Classes at most grade and high schools would not resume for about two weeks; students at Indiana Central College still had nearly three weeks of summer vacation left.

J.C. Brill Appliances in Southern Plaza took out a two-page ad to promote its huge sale. Owner Mr. Brill said he needed to sell a lot of merchandise so it wouldn't be in the way when remodeling his store.

An open house was held at the new Edgewood Preschool, 1829 E. Epler Ave., where Mary Ann Berry and Nancy Barnett taught the tiny tots.

Don Lehman was named the new pastor of Faith United Church of Christ.

Customers who bought a sandwich at Frisch's Big Boy, 1142 Shelby St., got a second one for 1 cent.

50 Years Ago This Week — 1973
The teaching staff at St. Roch Grade School featured Marjorie Cox, Mary Ann Agresta, Pat Meyer, Kathleen O'Banion, Dorothy Frye, Maura Watson, Greg Harveth, Dick Gallamore and Trudy Armbruster.

The following quip was published on the front page: A dad holding his son's report card said, "Son, it's too bad they don't give a grade for courage. You would get an A for just bringing this card home."

Mike Duval assumed his duties as manager and head pro at Keystone-South Racquet Club, 3510 S. Keystone Ave.

Dr. Larry Roberts opened a dental office at 8241 Bluff Road.

Ten-year-old Becky Bohman attended Camp Ladyglen, which was operated by nuns in Ohio.

40 Years Ago This Week — 1983
A hearing to discuss widening Meridian Street to four lanes from Edgewood Avenue to Smith Valley Road was discussed.

Fresh New England lobster or 20-ounce T-bone steak dinners were served for $8.95 at Hagan's Bar & Grill, 1121 E. Troy Ave. (I worked there at the time and remember having lobster races across the parking lot after we closed.)

Heath's Hair Styling gave paperback romance books to its customers.

The Beach Boys, Wayne Newton and Willie Nelson performed at the Indiana State Fair.

30 Years Ago This Week — 1993
Southport Little League's 11- and 12-year-old girls softball team finished fourth in the World Series in Kalamazoo, Mich.

St. Mark Church parishioners (front, from left) Michael Hill, Jay Allen, Clara Starks; (back) Celeste Allen, Will Hendricks, Brian Bates, Joe Cole, Eric Allen, Erin Fitzpatrick, Matt Schwartz, Erin Speth, Joe Berkemeier, Kelly Hoffman and Chris Werner attended World Youth Day in Denver, where Pope John Paul II spoke.

Jerry Dunn, a marathon runner and a graduate of Manual High School, was nominated for the National Caring Award.

Meridian Middle School teacher Chuck Bonnet chaperoned a group of eighth-graders on a trip to Washington, D.C.

The top video rental was "A Few Good Men."

The Perry Lady Falcons sixth-grade basketball team finished its season with a 19-3 record and was runner-up in the National American tournament at Indiana University. Squad members were (front) Casey Newhouse, Kaylee Joetcheus, Jessi Darmelio, Kate-land Walker, Bridget Kress; (back) Sarah Keene, Samantha Hawk, Sarah Quebe, Julie Engle and Kristine Booth.

Marine Pfc's. Lynsey Receveur, Matthew Griffin and Thomas Kraft completed recruit training in San Diego.

Ben Felix, a graduate of Perry Meridian and a sophomore at Manchester College, was honored for winning many reserve and grand champion awards while competing in Perry Township 4-H and Marion County fairs over the past 10 years. He was the son of Dave and Becky Felix.

Children in the Richmond Hills neighborhood, near Sherman Drive and Stop 11 Road, participated in a bicycle parade as part of National Night Out, a program where the community and police united in an effort to thwart crime.

Terri Sylvester was named Clinton Young Elementary School's Teacher of the Year for 2002-03. She was active in developing a program to help special needs students meet academic requirements.

"The Bookman" columnist Don Fogleman offered some financial advice to his readers: Invest big in General Motors because it has a line of hydrogen-powered cars, and it's going to be huge (didn't GM file for bankruptcy in 2003).

PAID OBITUARY

ADDISON MICHELLE VARNIS, only 11-years young being born on June 5, 2012, traded her sword for her angel wings on August 11, 2023, after battling DIPG brain cancer valiantly for 53 months. She attended Maple Grove Elementary in Bargersville, IN where she adored everyone there and they did the same. To know her was to love her and she never met a stranger. She was simply a ray of sunshine and this world is a little less bright without "Addison's Sunshine" being present.

*In a world of innocence, a radiant ray,
An 11-year-old sunshine girl, brightening each day,
Fighting DIPG, a battle so tough,
With courage unwavering, she showed more than enough.
For four long years, she faced the storm,
With a spirit so joyful, her heart so warm,
Through hospital stays and endless trials,
Her strength and her laughter spanned countless miles.
Her name was a melody, a song of delight,
A lantern of hope, a comforting light,
Addison called them the 4-pack, a family so strong,
In love's embrace, they all did belong.
She spread her sunshine, to friends and to all,
Her smile infectious, like a comforting shawl,
In school halls and playgrounds, her presence would gleam,
A reminder of courage, a vibrant dream.
Though DIPG was a challenge, she showed no fear,
In the face of adversity, she held her cheer,
Now she rests in heaven, her journey complete,
Leaving behind memories, oh so sweet.
A brave little warrior, now free from the pain,
In hearts she'll forever remain,
A sunshine girl, her legacy true,
In the love that surrounds, and the skies so blue.*

-Tish DeHaven

She left this world but not without giving us one last gift. She so bravely donated her brain and spine for further research to help be part of finding the cure for this deadly disease. Please help us continue Addison's fight by donating in her honor to:

She is survived by her parents Anthony and Heidi (Priola) Varnis along with her best friend and older sister, Aubrey Varnis; Grandparents, Bradley and Karen (Turk) Beers, Kevin and Lynda (Roller) Capps, Bryan Varnis. She was also surrounded and loved by many aunts, uncles, cousins, family, friends and the best community that one could ever dream of.

Seven Southside teams claim opening wins

By Al Stilley
Editor

Seven of 12 Southside high school teams captured their opening games of the 2023 football season, including three rivalry matchups.

Roncalli handled guest Southport, Class A No. 1 two-peat state champion Lutheran dominated Beech Grove, and Franklin Central defeated Perry Meridian on a night that the Falcons honored members of their very first 1973 football team.

The Royals jumped to a 37-8 halftime lead at Southport. The Cardinals scored two TDs in the second half for the final 23-point margin.

Roncalli running back Henry Adams had 15 carries for 105 yards. The Royals gained 222 yards on the ground and 102 yards passing while holding Southport to 71 yards rushing and 149 yards passing.

Benjamin Brandenburg scored two TDs and had five tackles for Roncalli. Casey Horton led the defense with six tackles.

Southport's Bryce Calvert threw TDs to Nilyn Compton and Kady Asher and completed 8 of 18 pass attempts. Fabian Tapscott had seven tackles and Trenton Baker six tackles for the Cardinals.

Lutheran and Beech Grove fought to a scoreless first quarter before the Saints rolled with three TDs by Brayon Hall and Jackson Willis threw three TD passes. Willis was 13 for 19 for 284 yards passing. Lutheran limited Beech Grove to 59 yards net offense.

TD PASSING RECORD

First-year Greenwood coach Justin Boser rolled out a new look for the Woodmen Friday as quarterback Brock Riddle threw a record six touchdown passes in a thrilling 51-49 road win at Seymour. Riddle's scoring throws were for 78, 38, 65, 4, 2, and 36 yards.

Amare Middleton caught three scoring passes and Tyler Crouch two as Riddle racked up 434 yards in the air on 20 of 26 completions. Riddle also ran for an 18-yard TD. Greenwood running back Alan Burnett had 28 carries for 141 yards and a TD.

Class 5A state runner-up Whiteland traveled to Jeffersonville where the Warriors enjoyed a 30-0 early lead before the host Red Devils scored a touchdown shortly before halftime. Whiteland relied on its solid running game that totaled 279 yards. Slate Valentine had 17 carries for 156 yards and Maalik Perkins had 10 carries for 101 yards.

Three-time reigning 6A state champion Center Grove collided with Ohio champion St. Edward on the Tom Benson Hall of Fame Field in Canton, Ohio. The Trojans toured the Pro Football Hall of Fame building Friday. Then Saturday, in a battle between northern Ohio and Indiana, the Trojans fell, 27-10.

The Trojans trimmed the lead to 14-3 on a field goal by Kade Mathews in the second quarter. St. Edward expanded the lead to 20-3 before CG's Rylan Cook scored on a 23-yard TD.

CG quarterback Dylan Cherry connected on 17 of 23 passes for 144 yards with Noah Coy catching eight passes for 86 yards.

Roncalli senior running back Benjamin Brandenburg (35) finds running room against Southport during opening night of the 2023 high school football season. Brandenburg scored two touchdowns and helped the Royals defense with five tackles.

On a summer evening fit for the beach, the Roncalli High School student cheer section tossed beach balls while supporting their Royals football team. Roncalli won its home opener against rival Southport, 43-20 at Bob Tully Field, their fourth consecutive season opening triumph.

FRIDAY, AUG. 25, 7 PM @ SOUTHPORT

Cross-country teams split Battles of Perry Township

Southport and Perry Meridian cross country teams split their boys and girls Battles of Perry Township runs.

Southport's girls, led by first-place Evelyn Garcia, won, 17-46. The Cardinals covered five of the top six finishers with Lucy Hiller, Izzy Meece, Izzy Cox, and Halley Kenyon. In the boys' run, Perry Meridian had the top four finishers and won, 16-45. Six Southport runners posted career personal best times.

The Cardinals' girls' team was second in the seven-team Pike Hokum Karem, relays with pairs each running three one-mile loops. Southport was three points away from the championship. Evelyn Garcia and Lucy Hiller led the Cards by placing fourth overall. Halley Kenyon and Ashley Martinez placed seventh while Izzy Meece and Isabella Cox were ninth.

VOLLEYBALL

The Cards started the girls' volleyball season with an impressive 5-0 start, capped by an opening home win against Decatur Central, 25-18, 25-14, 25-16. Paige Mayer had nine kills, four digs, and three aces. Meagin Hurst also had six aces.

Earlier this month, the Cards downed Crothersville, 25-11, 25-15 for a hard-fought southern Indiana tourney title. Tori Ruzi had nine kills. Southport advanced to the title match by coming from behind to defeat Mitchell 23-25, 26-24, 15-9 with Ryleigh Hamilton getting 11 kills and Ari Neese 15 digs. Southport defeated Salem 25-13, 25-14, and Scottsburg 24-26, 25-23, 15-7 in earlier rounds. Their winning streak ended against North Central and Pike.

GOLF

Southport's girls' golf team opened the new season Aug. 10 with a 193-221 win against Ben Davis at South Grove Golf Course. Sophomore Claire Davis was medalist with a 9-hole 40. Other scores included junior Lilly Hess 51, freshman Norah Hufnagel 50, and sophomore Lillie Youmans 52.

HOROSCOPE

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) A relaxed mood early in the week could give way to high-temperature disputes. The Aries Lamb should resist being pulled into heated quarrels that could really singe your wool.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Satisfy that practical obligation first, then feel free to indulge in your creative endeavors. Also, check for hidden or overlooked areas where repairs might be long overdue.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Home is still the Twins' major focus this week, but outside matters begin to take on added importance, especially those involving possible career moves. Stay alert for signs of change.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) A travel plan might need to undergo some considerable adjustments because of unexpected changes. Keep an open mind and let the facts guide you on how you want to handle this.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Playing cat and mouse with a matter you've been avoiding wastes time, energy and, most importantly, an opportunity. Ask someone with experience to help you get started.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) A shift in policy might not please you, but before you put up a "no go" wall of resistance, examine the circumstances. You might be pleasantly surprised at what you find.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) Yesterday's critiques about your methods might have already evolved into today's praise for your achievements. Good for you. Now go on and continue to build on your credibility.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) An occasional temperamental flare-up might occur, as you continue to help get things back to normal. Stay with it. You should soon get some idea of where to take things next.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A negative reaction to what you believe was a well-deserved request might mean that you need to reconsider your position and make changes accordingly.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) There's always room for someone new at the Sea Goat's table. The someone new for this week could bring a message you've been waiting a long time to hear.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) A pile-on of personal matters this week might seem too overwhelming to deal with, but handling them on a one-by-one basis could have you out from under it by the weekend.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) A friend might need your good advice re-
