Southport High School The awards keep coming for publications

Southport High School Anchor yearbook advisor Sam Hanley is the latest educator to be honored by the Indiana High School Press Association (IHSPA).

Hanley is the recipient of the Ella Senegenberger Indiana Student Media Advisor of the Year award. He received the honor at the IHSPA's state convention recently at Franklin College.

One year ago, SHS principal Brian Knight was honored as the IHSPA Indiana Administrator of the Year for his ongoing support of student publications produced by students at the high school.

Hanley has served as advisor for The Anchor for over 15 years. He teaches English at the high school where he is co-chair of the English department. He has taught there since 2002.

"I'm honored and blessed," Hanley said upon receiving the award.

He later added, His colleagues and students contend the award is well-deserved.

Co-editors-in-chief of The Anchor, Olivia Graphman and Rin Diki, The Journal newspaper advisor Mike Klopfenstein and Knight submitted letters of recommendation for the coveted IHSPA award.

"The bottom line is he's deserving," Klopfenstein said in The Journal. "He's been a fantastic advisor for such a long time and ... this is a guy who helps out kids not just out of school, but all over the state, hopefully all over the country."

His students described Hanley as "helpful," "knowledgeable," and "approachable."

The recommendations cited Hanley's ability to guide, teach and support his students as they work together to produce their final yearbook product.

Hanley also serves as vice president of the IHSPA executive board which meant that he couldn't be informed of his recognition prior to the award ceremony because he was part of planning the annual convention at Franklin College.

HOOSIER STAR – THE TROJAN

The Trojan yearbook at Center Grove High School received the Hoosier Star award from among several high school yearbook Hoosier Star finalists, including: The Woodman, Greenwood; Passages, Perry Meridian; The Reveille, Roncalli; and The Anchor, Southport.

The following Southside high school yearbook and newspaper staff members also were honored at the IHSPA convention at Franklin College:

Center Grove High School (Div. 3) – newspaper: Gourav Pany, second place, writing portfolio; Sam Findley, third place, writing portfolio, column writing; Laney Brooks, third place, sports photo.

Southport High School (Div. 3) – newspaper: Lucy Hiller, winner, writing portfolio, news writing; Ayslin Bowman, second place, feature writing; Megan Rogers, third place, infographics. The Anchor yearbook: staff, second place, yearbook theme.

Greenwood High School (Div. 2) – The Woodman yearbook: staff, winner, features/student life and multi-page design; second place, yearbook album; third place, clubs/organizations. Timberlines staff newspaper: winner, website; Elijah Poe, second place, writing portfolio.

FIRE DESTROYS STORAGE BARN AT SOUTHSIDE ANIMAL SHELTER

An early morning fire Monday destroyed a storage barn at Rosie's Southside Animal Shelter, 1614 W. Edgewood Ave. Indianapolis firefighters responded to the scene at 1:22 a.m., but the building where laundry is done and nearly all supplies for the cats and dogs are stored is a total loss. Firefighters contained the fire and prevented spreading to other buildings or to dozens of animals. Those facilities sustained mostly cosmetic damage. However, two feral cats housed in the barn were not immediately located. Animal shelter founder and executive director Rosie Ellis returned to the scene Monday afternoon to get a further understanding of immediate needs. She expressed her gratitude for the Indianapolis Fire Department. Cause of the fire is under investigation. For updates, due to deadline for this edition, visit the shelter's Facebook page or website at <https://ssasi.org>.

Two 'Oscars of teaching' on Southside

Milken Educator awards surprise Rosa Parks' Brittany Tinkler and Grassy Creek's Angela Fowler

Students crowd around second grade teacher Brittany Tinkler for congratulatory hugs at her surprise Milken Educator Award notification.

By Al Stilley
Editor

The Southside has the unique distinction of having two 2022-2023 Milken Educator Award recipients among 35 teachers nationwide.

Grassy Creek Elementary School fourth-grade teacher Angela Fowler was among the early recipients during an assembly at the Clark-Pleasant district school last year in late November.

A dozen weeks later in Perry Township, Rosa Parks Elementary School teacher Brittany Tinkler became a recipient in another surprise all-school assembly, similar to those held locally and nationally for all award winners.

Each recipient also received an unrestricted cash prize of $25,000 that was awarded in front of enthusiastic and cheering students, teachers, administrators, and local, state, and national dignitaries.

They also receive an all-expenses paid trip to the Milken Educator Awards Forum in Los Angeles in April and many more professional development opportunities throughout their careers.

The coveted awards are referred to as "the Oscars of teaching."

Each Southside teacher instructs young students in mathematics and has implemented innovative ways to make sure the lessons take hold. Each teacher also comes from a family of educators.

BRITTANY TINKLER

Tinkler, an 11-year teacher, is a graduate of Perry Meridian High School with her bachelor's degree from Indiana University and masters from Indiana Wesleyan University.

She was praised for her innovative project-based learning programs that extend throughout Perry Township schools. She brings in community partners to introduce her students to new career possibilities and helps her classes outperform expected growth in math and English/language arts. She also launched a robotics club at the second-grade level which bodes well for continued interest beyond elementary school.

"Brittany Tinkler is a treasure to Perry Township, drawing from her experience both as a classroom teacher and teacher leader to bring learning to life for her students every day," said Dr. Foley, a 1994 Indiana Milken Educator. "It is no surprise that she calls Rosa Parks Elementary her second home."

Dr. Jenner stated, "Mrs. Tinkler creates educational opportunities that come alive for her students," Rosa Parks principal Matt Bush praised. "She is a strong advocate for Project Based Learning (PBL) and is beginning to mentor teachers in our building through that platform. This also shows our community the great instruction that takes place here, not just Mrs. Tinkler, but through all of our teachers. I am excited to continue to see the

ANGELA FOWLER

Also surprised by the award at an all-school assembly, Fowler enjoys teaching students at the upper elementary school level.

"You really see their interests start to come alive, and they are starting to form who they will become as a person," she observed. "This is also where students start to see a lot of their mathematical foundational skills come into play when working with deeper concepts."

She desires to move her students from math procedures and memorization to understand the "why" of math.

A former Riley Kid herself, Fowler took part in Riley Dance Marathons at Ball State and also introduced the fund-raising activity and week-long Riley activities at Grassy Creek Elementary School at the corner of Sheek and East Worthsville Roads.

She also praised her role models, principal Trina Lake and assistant principal Teresa Gross and two of her educators, Dick Gallamore and Mary Ann Chamberlain.

Unlike most teacher recognition programs, the Milken Educator Awards initiative has no formal nomination or application process. Candidates are sourced nationally, and then recommended with the final decision made by the Milken Family Foundation.

The awards are kept secret until the presentations at school campuses.

RHS BAND SOLOISTS EARN GOLD RATING AT STATE

 Perry Kiwanis recently made a $650 donation to Southside Indianapolis Young Life to send a student to summer camp. Presenting the donation to Young Life area director Joe Snyder, middle, are Perry Kiwanis president-elect Ethan New, left, and club co-president Scott Splichal. Young Life is a Christian outreach ministry that connects with kids from different cultures and backgrounds that might not have a caring adult in their life. Kiwanis supports various community organizations including Hunger Inc., Baxter YMCA, Perry Senior Services and Riley Hospital for Children, and it awards scholarships to high school seniors. Support for these programs is obtained through a chili cook-off held in October, a concession stand now in operation during Baxter's winter basketball games and during its spring and fall youth athletic league games, and a golf outing held in June.

Heroic shooter prevents more killings at mall voted TOP STORY OF 2022

By Al Stillely
 Editor
 You, our beloved readers, have spoken and have decided The Southsider Voice's top story of 2022.
 On July 17, 2022, Good Samaritan Eli Dicken saved several lives in the Greenwood Park Mall food court by fatally shooting a gunman who had shot and killed three people and wounded one. The Southsider Voice acknowledged prayers and condolences to the families and friends of the victims shot by the assailant.
 Of course, the impact of this tragedy weighs heavily on the Southsider; however, we are grateful for all law enforcement officers and first responders who work tirelessly to protect us from harm. Southsiders responded throughout 2022 to the needs of others through food and clothing collections and monetary donations.

Personal Recollections
 By Fred Shonk

A long hard year

My wife, Lyn and I have recited the very same sentence many times in the last few months. We have been trying to help each other get through a very tough year. The great thing is that along with our family and friends, they have really helped each other.
 Exactly one year ago today, (Feb. 15, 2022) we had to say goodbye to our dog, Stuart. He was going on 18-years-old and had been a registered therapy dog for more than 12 years. His health was failing. It took a few weeks to pass on the information to his friends at nursing homes and schools that his days were winding down. We remember standing with him in the veterinarian's office and saying goodbye to him for the very last time.
 About six weeks later, we adopted another dog from the Southside Animal Shelter. During this year of many difficult situations that both my family and friends have encountered, our new family member, Simon has been our bright light at the end of the tunnel.
 A few weeks later, the young lady that was known as "Stuart's Girlfriend" passed away. Stuart and I had visited with Christi in her room at Manor Care Nursing Home for 10 years. She was such a sweet gal. I got permission to visit Christi one time with Simon. It really touched my heart that the two of them bonded in just a few minutes.
 Lyn and I have been dealing with some physical problems also. I took a bad fall and messed up my spine and back. I was under orders to not move about much and no heavy lifting. We learned that Simon was a very proficient canine nurse. He spent many hours each day sitting on my lap and monitoring my healing progress.
 A couple of months after that, Lyn really hurt her back. She also was instructed to take it very easy. It was astounding to see Simon double his canine nursing duties. He had spent most of his time with me until Lyn got hurt. It was so special to see him hop up into her chair with her and spread the canine love.
 Members of Lyn's family had been dealing with medical problems this year also. Even with her physical / back problems, she spent lots of time connecting with her family and helping any way that she could.
 I lost a few family members in the last few months. By far the toughest was the death of my son, Mark. He suffered for over half of his life with alcohol addiction. He dealt with so many peaks and valleys over the years. He stayed with us a few times when things were not going well and he was homeless. I don't think his passing was a big surprise but it was and still is very heart-breaking.
 I also lost a couple of cousins in the last few weeks. Sue Ellen Johnson was my cousin on my father's side of our family. Her mom and my dad were brother and sister. I also lost a cousin on my mother's side. He lived in Knoxville, Tennessee. His sister, who lives in Texas lost her husband that very same week. I can't imagine losing a sibling and a spouse in less than a week.
 After experiencing these tough times this last year, one more terrible thing happened last week. A wild animal, probably a weasel got into the pen with our chicken girls and we lost two of them. This was very tough on both of us. Those girls are part of our family and they all have names.
 There have been other things that have been tough to deal with, but I'm really beginning to see the light at the end of the tunnel.
 We have so many wonderful, special friends and family and many have come forward and made things much better.
 I was interrupted during the writing of this article. Simon reminded me that this was Sunday. Beside it being Super Bowl Sunday, it is also Puppy Bowl Sunday. We stopped our article production and went back into the house to watch the 19th Annual Puppy Bowl.
 During the first half of the contest, if the puppies got excited and started barking and running around, Simon would start growling, barking and sometimes jumping toward the television.
 Lyn and I couldn't stop laughing. Finally, Simon figured out those crazy dogs were on the television and not in our house or our backyard. He then took a nap until the second half began.
 I bet he sleeps through all of the Super Bowl. Well, at least until his dinner time.

50 Years Ago This Week — 1973

The boys basketball team from Southport High School, coached by Richard Theil and captained by Fred Poe and Dale Nordholt, was honored for winning the Marion County tournament.

James Lyles achieved Eagle Scout status after completing his service project, which included collecting and repairing more than 325 toys for the American Red Cross. Lyles was a member of Troop 118 at St. Roch School.

The Singing Grannies from Greenwood performed at Friedens United Church of Christ, where guests were treated to cherry pie and coffee after the performance.

40 Years Ago This Week — 1983

The Spotlight celebrated its 45th anniversary.

Donald Resener was named The Spotlight's Southsider of the Month for his service to Boy Scout Troop 545 and Christ United Methodist Church. Resener and his wife, Jewell, had four children (from left) Jeanice, Larry, Michael and Rick (not pictured).

Famous Recipe Fried Chicken served a nine-piece meal, a pint of mashed potatoes and slaw and six biscuits for $4.99.

Herman Strakis, Indiana's Auctioneer of the Year, was selected to emcee Lutheran High School's dinner-auction.

Carl "Blackie" Braden, a teacher and former basketball coach at Southport High School, was retiring after 45 years as an educator.

30 Years Ago This Week — 1993

The University of Indianapolis' Polar Bear Run & Walk attracted 2,000 participants.

Dr. Ann Sablam was named senior pastor of Southport United Methodist Church.

Manual named Dave Shaw as its Alumnus of the Year. The 1945 graduate played football, coached and taught at the school.

James Hill II, a 1989 graduate of Perry Meridian High School, served as an intern in Nevada's House of Representatives.

Seven-year-old Natalie Raimondi, daughter of Paul and Dorothy Raimondi, was attentive to a Southport cheerleader during a basketball game.

20 Years Ago This Week — 2003

Perry Meridian students D.J. Green, Joel Donnell, Dan Nitsch and Jesse Wilson were rehearsing for their school's production of "Footloose."

Greenwood Sertoman Jim Crick was named the club's Man of the Year for his service to the community. The agency's Service to Man-kind Award, an honor bestowed upon a nonmember, was presented to Philip Milto Jr. for his dedication to finding a cure for Batten disease, a neurological disorder that afflicted two of his children.

Perry Meridian's wrestling team defeated Warren Central 33-19 for a regional title.

Roncalli senior Marcus Nalley, son of Denise Nalley and the late Dick Nalley, who was member of the two-man Olympic bobsled team in 1980, signed a letter of intent to play football at the University of Indianapolis.

10 Years Ago This Week — 2013

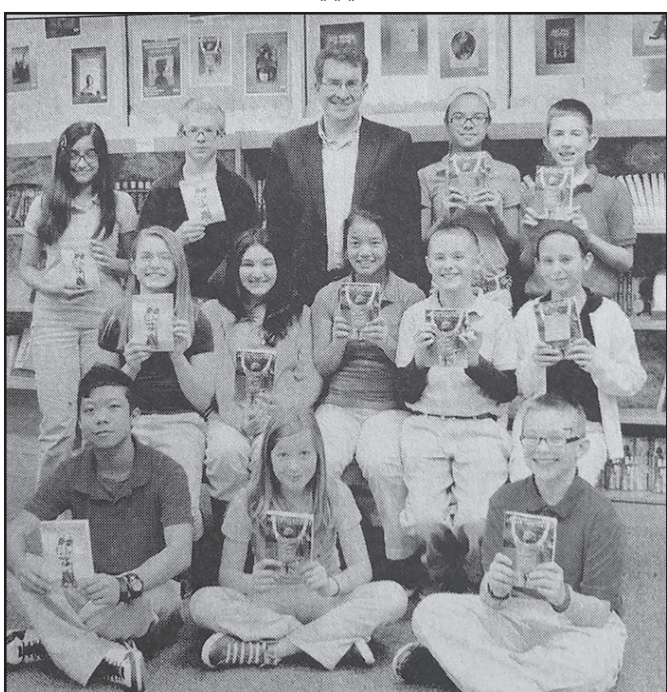

Sarah Quebe, a 2009 graduate of Perry Meridian, was named to the dean's list at Hanover College.

Prusiecki remains focused, wins state

By Steve Page
Correspondent

Mia Prusiecki was this close to defending her IHSAA State one-meter diving championship Saturday at the Indiana University Natatorium on the campus of IUPUI.

All the groundwork was in place. A week earlier, the Center Grove junior racked up 520.95 points to dominate the Franklin Community sectional. On Tuesday, she won the Jasper diving regional by nearly 100 points, finishing with a score of 539.85.

Then the unthinkable happened. Center Grove diving coach Fred Hill needed an emergency appendectomy in the middle of the night Thursday.

To some, that would be completely unnerving. After all, Prusiecki was planning to finish the state meet with a new and difficult dive.

But those around Prusiecki made sure she stayed grounded.

With the help of head coach Brad Smith, her teammates and the coaches at Franklin and Indian Creek, Prusiecki did indeed retain her title.

On her very last dive.

She totaled 52.70 points on that final attempt, an inward 2-1/2 somersaults out of the tuck position.

That effort enabled Prusiecki to pass Fort Wayne Snider sophomore Amelia Rinehart. She finished with 478.30 points to 466.70 for Rinehart.

"It's just a matter of keeping your nerves and having fun," Prusiecki said. "You need both."

And that great finishing dive.

After Rinehart's 11th dive, she had 466.70 points to 425.60 for Prusiecki. So the latter needed a score of 41.20 to take the lead.

"My last dive was a big dive," Prusiecki said. "If I could hit it, that's a big dive. This is my first year of competing this dive. The degree of difficulty was 3.1, so I had that."

Her scores from the seven judges ranged from 4.5 to 7.0. Other than the 4.5, the rest were almost all 5.5.

"The poor guy's still in the hospital," Prusiecki said of Hill. "He's a great coach, a great guy. I had a few other coaches help me out here."

Coach Smith echoed that sentiment, saying, "She could have lost her way. We got everything ready Friday to keep her in her routine. We found help from Franklin and Indian Creek, so that was good. We're all in this together."

Especially on Saturday.

With junior Lara Phipps competing in four events, the Trojans finished ninth overall with 91 points.

"Our goal was to be Top 10, so this is a huge step for the program to come back," Smith said. "We were 13th last year. We walked out of here today with five medals."

Phipps took seventh in the 100-yard butterfly with a clocking of 55.86 seconds. She was eighth in the 200-yard individual medley, swimming the butterfly, backstroke, breaststroke and freestyle legs in 2:04.98.

Phipps joined fellow juniors Lexi Stuart and Grace Clarkston and sophomore Tenley Wilkins to take sixth in the 200 freestyle relay at 1:35.36. Stuart, Wilkins, Phipps and sophomore Clara Brandon placed eighth in the 400 freestyle relay at 3:32.96, nearly two seconds faster than they qualified Friday night.

"Lara's an extremely hard worker," Smith said. "Everybody is a junior or under, so we have set the framework for next year."

Mia Prusiecki, a Center Grove junior, is all smiles as she wears her one-meter diving championship medal.

Mia Prusiecki flies horizontally through the air as the Center Grove junior competes in Saturday's IHSAA State Finals in the IU Natatorium.

Franklin Central junior Devynn Bishop launches herself off the diving board en route to a fourth-place finish in Saturday's IHSAA State Finals.

Lara Phipps, a Center Grove junior, cuts through the Indiana University Natatorium water as she competes in the backstroke leg of the 200-yard individual medley during Saturday's IHSAA State Finals.

CG GIRLS ADVANCE TO SOUTHPORT SEMISTATE

Center Grove (22-4) will open the IHSAA 4A Semistate at Southport against Bedford North Lawrence (24-3) Saturday at 10 a.m.

In a new semistate format, four teams are at Southport and four teams are at the 4A Semistate at Huntington North.

The second game at Southport Fieldhouse features Lawrence North (18-9) against Ben Davis (18-9) at noon. The Giants, coached by former Roncalli coach Stan Bengel, won the sectional title at Southport in this year's playoffs.

The two winners meet for the Southport Semistate championship game at 8 p.m. Saturday.

The Trojans, champions of the Bloomington

South Sectional, captured the Bedford North Lawrence Regional in overtime Saturday, 45-43 as Center Grove stretched its winning streak to 18 games. Ironically, the Trojans last loss was at Franklin, 38-34, on Nov. 29, 2022. This is CG's first regional title since 2007.

Center Grove will be seeking its first semistate championship since 1996 when the Trojans went on to win the IHSAA state championship.

The pairings were made by a random draw Sunday afternoon.

Admission is $12 each session; $20 both sessions with children 5 years and younger, free. Info: ihsaa.org.

Fast finishers

Another area diver who finished well was Franklin Central senior Devynn Bishop. She scored 40 points on her last dive, leaping from eighth to fourth with a total score of 442.70.

Southport senior Noelle Bryan placed 13th in the 50 freestyle at 24.31 seconds after qualifying 14th at 24.22.

Southside teams qualify 25 wrestlers for state finals

By Al Stilley
Editor

Center Grove wrestlers added the Evansville Reitz Semistate team championship to their trophy case Saturday with 202.5 points, edging runner-up Brownsburg by 22 points. Whiteland was eighth with 36.5 points and one champion.

The Trojans competed with 12 wrestlers and qualified all dozen for the state finals. They also claimed two individual semistate blue ribbons.

CG junior Wyatt Krejsa (17-0) remains undefeated in the 135-pound class.

Perry Meridian placed third with 82.5 points in the IHSAA wrestling semistate Saturday at Warren Central. Roncalli was sixth with 67.5 points. Cathedral won the team title with 117 points.

At Warren Central, Roncalli senior Bryce Lowery remained undefeated in 40 matches by pinning junior Zach Lang of Hamilton Southeastern for the 152-pound title. Classmate Luke Hansen (40-0) stayed unbeaten by pinning senior Orrian Foster of Connersville for the 195 crown.

The top four wrestlers in each weight class qualified for the upcoming IHSAA state finals Friday and Saturday at Gainbridge Fieldhouse.

Southside qualifiers (placement in semistate):

Center Grove (12): Champions-Charlie LaRocca, 113 pounds; Wyatt Krejsa, 145. Second-Reese Courtney, 138; Silas Stitts, 152; Andre Merrill, 160; Julian Weems, 182. Third, Noah Clouser, 170; Nate Johnson, 220; Tyler Schott, 285. Fourth-Eddie Goss, 120; Hyatt Yeager, 126; Kaden McConnell, 195.

Perry Meridian (4): Champions-Hurai Lian, 106; RJ Taylor, 113. Second-Keaton Morton, 132. Fourth-Zach Huckaby, 160. Roncalli (2): Champions-Bryce Lowery, 152; Luke Hansen, 195.

Whiteland (1): Champion-Joey Butler, 132. Beech Grove (1): Fourth-John Broadwell, 285.

Admission (reserve seats only) to the state finals is $15 per session; $25 for all three sessions with tickets digitally only through mobile phone via Ticketmaster.com (service fee). Sessions begin Friday at 1:30 p.m., Saturday at 9 a.m. with consolation at 4:30 p.m. and title matches at 7:30 p.m. Info: ihsaa.org.

Streaking No. 7 Greyhounds seek to extend 16-game winning streak

By Al Stille
Editor

2007 RONCALLI GRADUATE

Seeking to extend a 16-game winning streak, the No. 7 University of Indianapolis men's basketball team returns to Nicoson Hall and the Ray Skillman Court for their last two regular season home games Thursday and Saturday.

The Greyhounds resume action against Drury at 7:30 p.m. Thursday and against Southwest Baptist on senior day at 3 p.m. Saturday.

Then it's back on the road to Missouri for two final regular-season games before the all-important Great Lakes Valley Conference (GLVC) tournament at St. Charles, March 2-5, where they can qualify for the NCAA Division II Midwest Regional that begins March 11.

Coached by third-year mentor Paul Corsaro (Roncalli Class of 2007), the Greyhounds are making noise with their 22-2 overall and 14-2 record in the rugged GLVC. They are coming off a two-game Missouri road trip after defeating Rockhurst in Kansas City, 67-60 Thursday night and William Jewell in Liberty, 64-60 Saturday afternoon.

UIndy's win at Rockhurst avenged its only homecourt loss of the season, 71-61 on Dec. 3, 2022; they have not lost a game since then.

And they have been ranked among the top-10 in the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) poll for the first time since 2015.

The streaking Greyhounds have displayed balanced scoring with a tenacious defense that has held all opponents to an average of only 62.3 points per game while scoring 77.3 points. They have forced foes into 13.4 turnovers while committing only 9.6 miscues per game. And they average an impressive 16.5 points off turnovers.

It all adds up to an outstanding hardwood campaign with Corsaro and senior guard Ben Nicoson, a Center Grove High School product.

Corsaro is eligible for the NCAA DII national coach of the year after being named a HoopDirt.com national DII coach of the week on Jan. 23.

Corsaro's hardwood roots are at Roncalli High School where he is the all-time leading scorer with 1,150 career points and at the University of Indianapolis. His defensive emphasis was founded at Roncalli where the 2006-2007 team held foes to only 44.4 points per game during a 20-2 season.

(UNIVERSITY OF INDIANAPOLIS PHOTOS)

Greyhounds coach Paul Corsaro is in his third season at the UIndy men's basketball helm. He is a 2007 graduate of Roncalli High School where he holds the career scoring record.

Nicoson has played in all 24 games, about 13 minutes per game, with 54 total points and 23 assists. He opened this season with a season-high 10 points against Ohio Dominican. He has started six games this season.

Nicoson has played in 102 games in his Greyhound career and has brought honor to the program. He is a three-time academic all-GLVC member and a two-time GLVC Brother James Gaffney Distinguished Scholar.

The 6-0 guard also is a fourth-generation student-athlete, son of UIndy golf coach Brent Nicoson, grandson of former UIndy football player and assistant coach Dan Nicoson, and great-grandson of legendary basketball coach Angus Nicoson, whom the UIndy home venue is named.

He is majoring in exercise science / pre-physical therapy.

He is among three Southsiders with the Greyhounds, including freshman Ajay Holubar from Center Grove and 6-2 guard Eric Monkhaus, who transferred from Denver University. Monkhaus played for Greenwood High School where he is the program's No. 5 all-time scorer.

The Greyhounds are led this season by 6-6 redshirt sophomore guard Jesse Bingham, 15.9 points, a Warren Central product, and 6-7 junior center Kendrick Tchoua, 13.7 points, from Maryland.

Junior Eric Monkhaus is a transfer from Denver University and a product of Greenwood High School.

Senior Ben Nicoson, a Center Grove High School product, drives against an opponent. Nicoson has played in 102 games for the Greyhounds.

HOROSCOPE

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) The changes you've waited to see in your work situation might not be happening quite as quickly as you hoped. Although the pace is slow, it's ongoing. Expect to hear news soon.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) You should be feeling very proud of the fine effort you've made to get that important project done. Now take some time out to celebrate with family and friends. You've earned it.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) You're close to reaching your objectives. That's the good news. But be careful: Your aspects show lots of potential distractions looming. Stay focused and keep your eyes fixed on your goals.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Be careful not to let that suspicious Cancerian mind create a problem where none exists. What you might believe is an act of betrayal could be nothing more than a misunderstanding.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Your Lion's heart overflows with self-confidence. All you need to do is tap into it, and you'll be able to handle any change that must be made regarding that recent surprise development.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) The need to watch what you say becomes increasingly crucial this week. Be as temperate as you can with your comments and avoid arguments for the sake of controversy.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A longtime family problem presents new demands. But this time, you won't have to go it alone: Someone else is asking to help share your responsibilities. Let it happen.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A period of feeling vulnerable is about to give way to a stronger, more-self-confident aspect. Use this new strength to reaffirm promises you've made to others and yourself.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) A creative dilemma stalls your progress. Instead of letting it raise your ire, use the time to re-examine your aims and perhaps come up with a new target.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) Your nimble will might find a way for you to work out those newly emerged problems plaguing your new project. Stay with it. The results will be well worth your efforts.

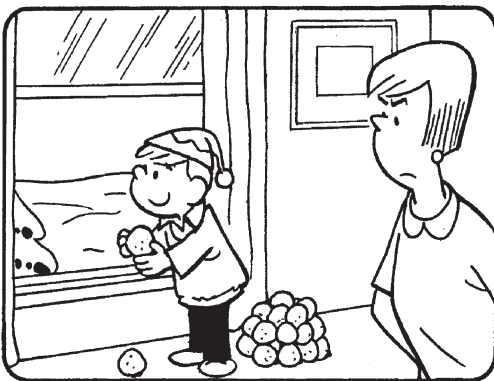

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) You might feel overwhelmed with having to decide which new opportunity you should follow. Best

Career Connection

CICOA RECRUITING ANNOUNCEMENT
 Aging & In-Home Solutions
 A member of the Connect Alliance.

CICOA Aging & In-Home Solutions is now accepting applications for the following position in the Flourish Care Management Department.

FLOURISH CARE MANAGER

Immediate opening for full time Care Managers with CICOA Aging & In-Home Solutions. Position requires human service experience and the desire to serve older adults and individuals with disabilities that live in southern Hendricks, Marion and Hancock counties, as well as Johnson, Shelby and Morgan counties. Individuals live in these counties south of I-70, so interested Care Managers would need to be willing to serve in those areas.

Responsibilities include assessing the need and eligibility of referred individuals for governmental and non-governmental services, including home and community-based services and nursing home placement, and providing linkages to community services as appropriate. Care Managers will develop comprehensive plans of care for each client and review quarterly. Care Managers act as advocates to preserve client rights and maintain client confidentiality.

Applicants must have effective oral and written communication skills, problem-solving skills, and access to a car and a valid driver's license for local commutes to complete client visits. Basic computer skills required, e.g., Microsoft Word, Excel, Outlook. Education/Experience requirements: Bachelor's and/or master's degree from accredited college or university with a minimum of 2 years full time, direct service experience with the elderly or disabled which includes assessment, care plan development and monitoring.

CICOA offers an excellent benefit package and remote work schedule. CICOA is an Equal Opportunity Employer. M/F/V/H

To apply, please submit a cover letter and resume to www.cicoa.org
