HAPPY VALENTINE'S DAY

It was love at first sight

By Bob Kelly Contributor

Bernie and Jody O'Connor have seen plenty of changes over the nearly six decades together, but one thing has always remained constant in this long going love affair – Valentine's Day.

It seems to both of them like it was just yesterday when they first met. It was not long after that initial meeting that each of them knew they had come across that special person. The year was 1961.

The lifelong Southsider resident was quick to admit he had an extraordinary feeling for Jody when he first laid eyes on her.

"When you see someone, it takes a while to have any kind of idea that you are looking at a person who is special," Bernie O'Connor said. "I had that feeling the first time that I saw her (Jody) in the eighth grade."

Jody added that after graduating grade school, they found each other during the beginning of their junior year at Sacred Heart Central High School in 1961. "I think it was love at first sight for me," Bernie told The Southsider Voice.

He continued to explain, "When I saw Jody walk into the gym that night, all I remember was thinking how she was the prettiest girl that I have ever seen. I still feel that way about her today."

When it comes to Valentine's Day, Jody made it known that she could count on each year that she would go out for dinner, get a lovely card, and receive a box of candy and flowers, too.

Jody told the Southsider Voice how the pair was able to overcome obstacles to be with each other. "I remember that we probably broke up once or twice, but it was not for long because we always got back together."

One obstacle occurred in 1965 when Bernie was drafted into the Army and did a two-year tour in Vietnam. Although being separated by a war, the couple were able to marry in 1966 at Holy Name Church in Beech Grove. The family settled in Beech Grove upon his return from Vietnam.

They eventually had four children – Brian, Theresa (Terri), Bernie Junior (BJ), and Becky, and have 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The family has remained closeknit over the years, with three children still living on the Southside of Indianapolis.

Our family rode bikes until it was dark because in those times, it was safe to do that," Jody said.

The O'Connors found plenty of time for their family and time for themselves in their marriage. Bernie was quick to point out how family members would go on vacations together as the couple and the rest of the family bonded through it all.

"I remember that for our 50th wedding anniversary, all of the family went to French Lick and besides being (just us) together with each other, we were with all of the family too," Bernie said.

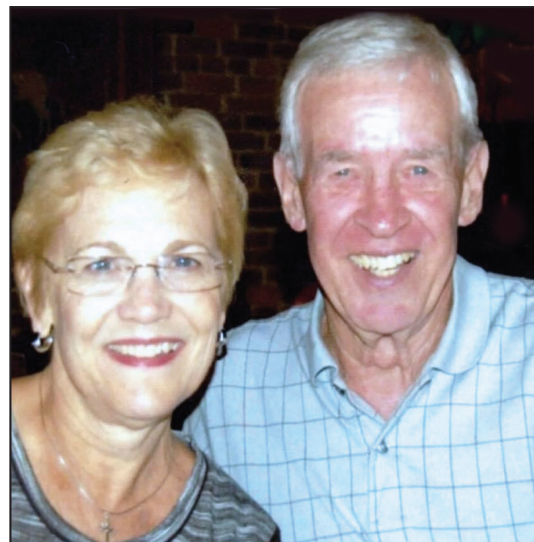

Jody explained one of the key components of a happy and long marriage. "I think there is something to be said when you both share the same religion, went to the same school and other things that you have that are similar. It helps go a long way through helping you fight through the tough times, as well as enjoy the good times."

Terri Lundy, the O'Connors' daughter, shared she learned much about relationships and family life by observing her parents through the years.

"By watching them, you learned about compromise and what a partnership is supposed to be about," Lundy said. "They sacrificed a lot for the family so they could put us through Catholic schools. They always put faith and family first."

Jody marvels at the good fortune she and Bernie have experienced throughout the decades, celebrating anniversaries, Valentine's Days, and the love of family above all else.

"It's been a wonderful journey," Jody said.

Greenwood's Farley renews friendship with Chiefs coach Reid at Super Bowl

By Al Stille Editor

Sunday's Super Bowl added another chapter in the longtime friendship of Kansas City Chiefs head coach Andy Reid and Greenwood realtor Joe Farley.

Farley, a former teacher and assistant football and basketball coach at Greenwood High School, and Reid were roommates with two other student-athletes at Brigham Young University in 1980-1981. They graduated from BYU in 1981 and have continued their friendship down through the years.

This was the third Super Bowl that Farley and his wife Vickie and Reid and his wife Tammy were able to get together briefly. In past years, they were able to either meet a day or two before the Super Bowl or at the Chiefs' post-game party afterward.

An Emmerich Manual High School graduate, Farley and Los Angeles-born Reid had a few classes together before they became roommates as seniors at BYU in an apartment off campus. They each married their girlfriends who also were roommates in summer of 1981.

"I thought Andy might wind up in some sort of different career," Farley recalled of their college days. "At the time, I don't think his goal was to be a coach. He was pretty driven, kept his nose to the grindstone, and was purposeful in everything he did."

Reid was a defensive lineman and Farley played lacrosse for the BYU Cougars. Reid had a double major in physical education and English. Farley majored in physical education and history.

After graduating from BYU, Farley returned to Indiana, worked for a construction company, and eventually landed as a teacher at Greenwood.

Meanwhile, Reid stayed at BYU as a student and graduate assistant on the BYU football team with legendary coach LaVell Edwards, who inspired Reid to coach. Reid eventually became an offensive line coach at San Francisco State, Northern Arizona, University of Texas El Paso, and Missouri. His first pro coaching job was with the Green Bay Packers in 1992.

During those early years after college, Reid and Farley and their wives stayed in touch with each other. The families vacationed together in the Ozarks when Reid was coaching at Missouri.

Reid has been to the Super Bowl five times and has come away with the world championship three times, the first back-to-back champion since New England (2002-2004). He is the only National Football League coach to win 100 games and four consecutive division championships with two different franchises (Philadelphia and Kansas City). The Chiefs have finished atop the AFC West division for nine consecutive seasons.

"I enjoy seeing him on TV during his pressers," Farley reminisced. "He's grateful, has a good sense of humor, is a people person, and relates to people well."

Reid and wife Tammy were interviewed post-game on ESPN where he called the Chiefs' winning play as "corndog with a little mustard and ketchup" to capture the overtime triumph, 25-22 against San Francisco.

Farley and his wife have four grown children and nine grandchildren. He is a 20-year realtor with Tomorrow Realty, Inc., 441 W. Main St., Greenwood.

The Farleys had good seats at Las Vegas for the exciting Super Bowl LVIII that just added another championship notch to their family's longtime friendships.

"How 'bout them Chiefs, baby!"

"I enjoy seeing Andy on TV during his pressers. He's grateful, has a good sense of humor, is a people person, and relates to people well."

IN MEMORY OF DAN BOLIN

While a freshman and sophomore at Southport High School, I was a flutist under the instruction of Dan Bolin. I was in the marching band, then my junior year switched over to the pep band during basketball games in order to receive my letter.

He truly was the nicest teacher and was always sporting a huge smile.

I remember when I found out that we shared a birthday – it was the coolest – he was the first person I had met who shared that special day, April 11.

I recently had lunch with former band members and flute players, Amy Whitlock (who became a Majorette) and Karen Cullison Keen (who became a Cardinalette).

Hearing the news that Dan passed away was shocking since we were just talking about him. He made an impact on so many. His accomplishments were stellar. He will be missed.

DANIEL PAUL BOLIN, 75, of Melbourne, FL, passed away on February 3, 2024, surrounded by his loving wife and sons.

Born on April 11, 1948, in Indianapolis, IN, to Gillespie and Genell (Runner) Bolin, Dan's journey was one of passion, joy, and a profound dedication to the world of music, education, and family.

At an early age, Dan was drawn to music by listening to the sounds of his father playing the piano and band music on the radio. He joined the Wood High School band and Indiana All-State Orchestra as a tubist. He went on to perform with the Philharmonic Orchestra of Indianapolis, the Carmel Symphony Orchestra, and was principal tubist with the Indianapolis Symphonic Band.

His older brother and Dan were the first generation in the family to attend and graduate college. Dan earned bachelor's and master's degrees in music from Butler University, and a doctorate in education from Indiana University.

His first job in education was back at his former high school taking over as band director. He went on to direct and teach music at schools throughout Indiana, developing the bands of Emmerich Manual, Lebanon and Southport High Schools. Under his leadership, Southport's bands were selected to perform at the IMEA Conference, the ASBDA National Convention, and were honored by Butler University with performances in Clowes Hall. In 1984, Dan transitioned from the head of the music department at Southport High School to administration: first as Assistant Principal, then Director of Personnel, Director of Secondary Education, Assistant Superintendent, and Interim Superintendent of Perry Township. Then in 1995, Dan joined Butler University, serving twice as Chair of the School of Music from 1995-2001 and again from 2009-2014. He was named Professor Emeritus upon his retirement from Butler University in 2018.

In 1981, Dan co-founded Great Lake Music Camps and for the next 23 summers, encouraged thousands of middle and high school students in their music education. He later launched Global Educational Tours taking many band, orchestra, and choral groups to perform all around the world.

He served as Executive Secretary of the IMEA, was a board member of ISMA, and numerous other boards including Indianapolis Chamber Orchestra, Perry Township Education Foundation, American Bandmaster's Association and was Chairman of Young Audiences of Indiana. Dan also hosted numerous United States military bands throughout Indiana. This led to guest conducting opportunities with The US Army Band, US Coast Guard Band, US Air Force Band, US Air Force Academy Band, US Air Force Band of Flight, and the US Army Field Band.

Dan's talents and dedication drew many recognitions and accolades including ASBDA Outstanding Young Band Director for Indiana, Who's Who in America, United States Army Civilian Public Service medal, Inductee of the Indiana Bandmasters Hall of Fame, the Gamma Chapter of Phi Beta Mu Hall of Fame, and International Band Directors' Hall of Fame. He was a Sagamore of the Wabash recipient.

Dan will be remembered not only for his professional achievements but also for his spirited embrace of life's joys. He, despite battling cancer and heart issues in his final years, continued to enjoy conducting concerts with the Indianapolis and Melbourne Municipal Bands, traveling with his wife, and spending time with his sons and grandchildren whenever possible.

Dan is survived by his wife, Jane; his sons, John (Lucy) and Douglas (Kiersten); mother of his sons, Marilyn Rader; and his brother, Stephen. His legacy is also celebrated by his grandchildren; Alessandra, Aspen, Vaughn, Liam, Gabriel, and Kora, who will carry forward the memories of their beloved grandpa's remarkable life and the melodies that defined it.

Visitation will be held at G. H. Herrmann Funeral Home, 5141 Madison Avenue, Indianapolis, IN on Friday, February 23, 2024 from 4 p.m. until 8 p.m. Additional visitation will be held on Saturday, February 24, 2024 from 11 a.m. until 1 p.m.

The memorial service will be held at 1 p.m. at the funeral home. A live stream, beginning at the start of service, will be viewable via Facebook page: G.H. Herrmann Funeral Homes and Cemeteries

In honor of Dan's love of music and animals, memorial contributions may be made to The Bolin Family Fund at Butler University online at <https://give.butler.edu/bolin> or by check payable to Butler University (Memo Line- Bolin Family Fund); or to IndyHumane at <https://indyhumane.org/honor-memorial-donation-form/> or by check payable to IndyHumane (Memo Line – In Memory of Dan Bolin).

READY FOR NCAA BASKETBALL, DOWNTOWN FESTIVITIES AND SOME REMINISCING

This coming weekend is going to be big in Indianapolis. The NBA is going to be in town and lots of different contests and a big all-star basketball game will be going on. The best players from around the league will compete in several different activities.

My memory drifts back to the days when I had that part-time position as a charter bus driver. I worked mostly local assignments and that was how I got acquainted with several NBA teams and players. I worked with the Chicago Bulls for a few years. This was during the Scottie Pippen, Dennis Rodman, and Michael Jordan years.

I enjoyed collaborating with the Bulls and they enjoyed reconnecting with me several times. During the first couple of times that I worked with them, I noticed that Michael Jordan called folks "partner" if he did not know their names. I was on his "partner" list.

One time when we arrived at the fieldhouse for a game, I saw Michael stepping from the bus and I quickly said to him, "Have a good game, partner." That started a new contest between the two of us. A couple of times, he would exit the hotel by a different door to sneak up behind me to shout, "Hi partner."

One time, Michael interrupted an interview between Scottie Pippen and several television newscasters that were trying to talk with Scottie while he was standing directly in front of our bus. Michael sat down in my driver's seat and honked the horn a couple of times. That really messed up the interview. Once the reporters figured out why the horn was honking, everyone laughed.

There is now a television commercial that Kelly Clarkson is doing for Wayfair. At the end of the commercial, Kelly has climbed into a Wayfair delivery truck and is sitting in the driver's seat. She quickly honks the horn and says, "I always wanted to do that."

I have seen that commercial a few times and I must laugh and remember Michael, Scottie, and the television guys each time.

I also had the opportunity to drive the USA men's basketball team during the time they were in Indianapolis prior to heading to Atlanta for the Olympic games in 1996. Both the men's and women's teams were in Indianapolis to play a pre-Olympic game before heading to Atlanta.

Charles Barkley was on that team. We had a chance to talk a couple of times. He sat near the front of the bus and was always pointing out to me the rowdy millionaires in the back of the bus. Scottie Pippen was also a member of that team. We reconnected about a couple of his earlier visits.

Shaquille O'Neal was a member also. He forgot a bag that had a pair of new shoes in it when I drove them to the airport for their flight to Atlanta. After I found those shoes, I contacted the coaches in Atlanta. They asked me to hold on to them while they did some checking. If I did not hear back from them in a couple of days, I should not worry about it.

I did not get a call. A few months later, I took those shoes to the local shoe store that was named on the bag and traded them for shoes my size. Size 22 was a bit large for me.

I smile each time I see Shaq in one of his many commercials.

I'm thinking about going downtown and enjoying the festivities over the weekend.

Shonk is a 1960 graduate of Southport High School, a '63 grad of Indiana Central College (now the University of Indianapolis) and a retired bus driver from Beech Grove Schools. He can be reached through email at fdshonk@aol.com.

Smith and Nina Jane (Wheatley) Smith. Shirley graduated from Franklin Central High School where she excelled academically and was very active. She was a cheerleader and competitive swimmer. She always said her swimming taught her a physical and mental toughness, which she showed to the end. Most importantly, while in high school, she met the love of her life, Ron Spangler, and they were married just six weeks after her 18th birthday. They were married almost 59 years before Ron's passing on July 4, 2022. Shirley was a full-time mom and helped Ron build and run his building company, Ron Spangler Inc. In 1980, she returned to the corporate workforce and later retired from Eli Lilly & Co. They raised two children, Lisa and Todd, who felt very blessed to know and feel the love of their mother. Shirley was a proud grandmother to five grandchildren, each of whom brought her much joy and happiness. Over the last several years as she cared for Ron with his Alzheimer's disease and dealt with her own failing lungs, she never complained and gave us all a wonderful example of determination and unconditional love. Shirley was an avid reader, loved movies and spending winters in The Villages, Florida.

Shirley is survived by children, Lisa Collins and Todd Spangler (Lorna Waterford); grandchildren, Nathan Collins, Brenna Collins, Zayne Spangler, Jaidyn Spangler and Vance Spangler; sisters, Earlene Cougill and Marcia (Bill) Cronin; brother, Denny (Patti) Smith; sister-in-law, Lois (Gib) Wagner; many nieces and nephews.

A visitation was held on Thursday, February 8, 2024 at Little and Sons Funeral Home, 4901 E. Stop 11 Road, Indianapolis, IN 46237. A funeral service immediately followed.

Southport's dramatic corner shot dooms host Roncalli in thriller

By Al Stille
Editor

Visiting Southport defeated host Roncalli on a game-winning play, just the way it was drawn up.
This tense Southside rivalry boiled down on Feb. 6 to 6-4 junior Jack Turner's stunning 3-point shot from the right corner that put Southport ahead, 61-59 for the win with 13.2 seconds left.

"It (play) worked perfectly the way that Ben Rhodes (assistant) drew it up," first-year Southport coach Bill Zych said. "We brought our big guy (James Kalala) into the middle. Jack was the guy who set the screen for him, and we got the ball to him after he slipped to the corner."

The successful out-of-bounds play left Roncalli plenty of time but Southport's defense clamped down on Royals' star Drew Kegerreis who was forced to launch a shot against a double-team that had no chance of reaching the rim before the buzzer.

Southport notched its third win in four outings and snapped a Royals' three-game winning streak.

Recalling Roncalli's final defensive strategy, coach Jamin Wernke said, "We were up one point (49-48) and wanted to take care of the paint (lane). We forced them to take a tough 3. We just didn't come out with the win."

The Royals wanted to protect inside the lane because Kalala, a 6-7 sophomore, had dominated the inside with 21 points and nine rebounds. Scoring 10 points all in the second half, Turner had connected on one of three 3-point attempts before his game winning shot.

Southport gained the game's biggest lead of six points (34-28) on 6-1 junior Michael Johnson's drive with 4:20 left in the third quarter.

The Royals responded with a 9-0 run in a 140-second flurry as 6-2 forward Noah Schmalz slipped underneath for four points and Kegerreis added a 3-pointer and a driving lay-up.

Trailing 48-44, Kegerreis put together a five-point surge for the Royals' final lead, 49-48.

Kegerreis wound up with 21 points and nine rebounds with 10 points each from Schmalz and 6-7 soph Joe Taylor, who went up against Kalala.

With a 10-8 record, Roncalli's Wernke observed, "We are getting better and better and we're getting close to where we need to be. We talk all the time about taking care of the ball, getting defensive rebounds, and getting our best shot. I keep thinking the tide is going to turn all at one time."

The Royals and Cardinals were as even as the final score indicated. Roncalli hit 20 of 45 shots (44.4 percent); Southport hit 21 of 48 (43.7 percent), Southport had a 27-25 edge on the boards, and each team committed nine turnovers.

There were 12 lead changes and the game was tied four times.

Zych, in his 37th season as a head coach, is no stranger to the Southside with previous stints at Center Grove and Perry Meridian. He coached at Pike for 13 years where he never had a losing season before succeeding Eric Brand at Southport. Zych is 24 wins from 500 career wins.

"It's always different when there's a change," Zych said. "Most of these kids had not played varsity until now. If they had, it was mop-up minutes. So they had to understand what varsity basketball is about. We've had our ups and downs, but it has been a steady climb."

The Cardinals have one lone senior, guard Caleb Wolsiffer, seven juniors, and two sophomores, including Kalala, a transfer from North Carolina, but originally from the Congo.

Each team was short-handed. Roncalli was without starters Will Hegwood and Luke Selke. Zych did not start with two regular starters.

Roncalli recovered Friday from the Southport loss by dominating host Heritage Christian, 58-42.

Southport collided Saturday against visiting Hamilton Southeastern, 75-69.

Elsewhere last week, Beech Grove snapped a six-game skid with only its fourth win at Cascade, 64-54; host Center Grove dominated Jeffersonville, 71-55 behind Joe Schmitz' 21 points;

Roncalli sophomore Luke Green (20) stops and pops against Southport's Christian Webster (2) during Southside duel at Roncalli's Ascension St. Vincent Gymnasium.

Decatur Central edged visiting Whiteland, 78-72; host Greenwood upset Plainfield, 65-58; Christel House Manual thumped Riverside, 84-57; and Lutheran defeated University 54-46.
All Southside teams are in their stretch run before IHSAA sectionals begin Feb. 27.

CG CELEBRATES, TO FACE FRANKLIN IN SEMISTATE SATURDAY AT SOUTHPORT

No. 2-ranked Center Grove's girls' team lofts Bedford North Lawrence Regional championship trophy high Feb. 10 after defeating the host Stars, 48-27. The Trojans (26-1) won with a stingy defense and balanced offense with Lilly Bischoff's game-high 18 points, Rachel Wirts 12, Ava Grant 10, and six key points from Ava Grant. Workman-like CG hit 17 of 34 shots (50 percent) and held BNL (20-5) to a season-low 27 points on their home court. # HOROSCOPE

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) Put that restless Arian surge to good use this week by preparing your winter-weary home for spring. Also, be more flexible about accepting a workplace change.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Your well-known ability to be patient is challenged as you wait for more news about a promising opportunity that could lead you down a new career path.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) A setback in your travel plans could prove to be a blessing in disguise. Use this extra time to help close a growing gap between you and a family member.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Don't let a sudden sense of separation between you and your partner go unchallenged. It's important to make a strong effort to clear things up.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) Use the information you recently received to make some long-deferred changes regarding a personal situation. Also, continue to exercise financial restraint.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) That new responsibility you're now considering could lead to many opportunities. But be sure you have all the facts before you agree to take it on.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A friend might try to advise you against a potentially risky move. Ultimately, the decision is yours, but hear them out before you decide.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) You might feel justified in demanding an apology, but it might be wiser to settle things so that today's adversary doesn't become tomorrow's enemy.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Good news: Expect a more positive aspect to dominate your personal and professional lives. In addition, someone close to you seeks your counsel.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) A disappointment can turn into a learning experience. Now, at least, you know what not to do. Meanwhile, expect more options to open up.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) What goes around comes around as a friend from the past returns a favor. Don't be timid about accepting it with good grace. You deserve it.

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Your spiritual strength helps you deal with a family member's problem. Expect some difficulties, but stay with it until it's ultimately resolved.

BORN THIS WEEK: You can observe people and situations with absolute honesty. You'd be a fine social worker, psychoanalyst or member of the clergy.
