Strange BUT TRUE

By Lucie Winborne

- * Did you dislike Brussels sprouts in your youth? Turns out they don't taste the same nowadays, thanks to Dutch scientist Hans van Doorn, who figured out which compounds in the sprouts made them bitter, then helped begin the work of selecting seeds that would produce more palatable results.
- * While ostriches can't fly, no bird on Earth can match their speed on land, since they can not only sprint at up to 43 mph, but cover more than 10 feet in a single stride.
- * A 50 by 50 foot area of healthy lawn generates enough oxygen to supply a family of four.
- * Every year, 1.2 million students drop out of school. That's 7,000 dropouts every day, or one every 26 seconds.
- * The First Gulf War in 1991 technically never ended. There was just a cease-fire. The U.K. used that legal loophole to justify entering the Second Gulf War in 2003.
- * In 2000, Sony invented a movie critic named David Manning and used his fictional quotes to promote the company's movies. The ruse backfired when Sony ended up paying over $1.5 million to moviegoers in a class action lawsuit and over $300,000 to the state of Connecticut, where "David Manning" supposedly worked at a small weekly paper.

HARRIERS ARE NUMBER ONE IN STATE

Sectional and county individual champ Herman Bueno, left, strides through the state meet. Herman was Coach Tom Hathaway's number one runner almost every meet.

Hathaway's harriers worked morning and night to reach for a dream they thought was possible.

And sure enough they did. Taking first in the sectionals and regional wasn't enough for the Cardinal crew as they rabled on to capture the trophy along with the glory of a state championship. Herman Bueno, Erhard Bell, David Kays and Kurt Hurley, the four horsemen, placed high enough along with junior Jim Booher beat a surprised Crown Point team which took second place honors. Sophomore Bob Browne and junior Kent Raker rounded out the seven-man punch.

The Harriers dual meet record was 8-0 including a 17-47 romp over arch-rival Perry Meridian for the all-sports trophy. The Cardinals also won three invitations; the Pike Hokum Koren, Ben Davis invitational and the Howe Invite. They also displayed their pack in the county as they took that convincingly.

Coach Hathaway starts his training program in the summer with a thousand-mile club starting in June. To obtain a shirt a runner has to run 500 miles before practice Aug. 13 so that he will have 1000 miles between June and September. Seniors Herman Bueno and Erhard Bell ran 900 miles.

By Macy Douglas Intern

Herman Bueno was recently honored for all his accomplishments over his long career at Southport Middle School. Bueno was honored for being a science teacher, as well as a track and cross-country coach. Bueno spent over 25 years as a teacher for Southport and graduated from Southport himself in 1976. During his time as a student at Southport High School, Bueno was an exceptional runner. He held the school's records for distance events in cross country and track for nearly 40 years.

HERMAN BUENO

After graduating high school, Bueno went on to run cross country and track at the University of Indianapolis. During this time at UIndy, Bueno received numerous awards. He was a four-time Letter-winner in both cross-country and track and field, and four-time Cross Country MVP honoree. In 1977 and 1978, Bueno was two-time NCAA Track and Field National Qualifier; as well as two-time HCC Cross Country Outstanding Runner and two-time NCAA Cross Country National Qualifier in 1978 and 1979. In 1980, Bueno was the HCC Track and Field's Most Valuable Runner. These are just a few of Bueno's many accomplishments as a college athlete.

In his career after college, Bueno coached several undefeated teams at Southport Middle School with career winning records of over 80 percent. He was inducted into the Southport High School Wall of Fame in 2004 and was University of Indianapolis Greyhound Club's 'I' Person of the year honoree in 2006. The event to celebrate Coach Bueno's career was held last Saturday at Southport Middle School. Many past students and runners, as well as work colleagues came to show their support, congratulate, and thank Bueno for his dedication to his job as teacher and coach.

Bueno has also been an assistant and teacher at the Marc Adams School of Woodworking and Time-Honored Crafts since it opened in 1993. He has assisted in over 80 classes over the years and attended many classes himself. Bueno has dedicated his life to helping both students and adults grow and learn. His dedication shows through the success of his countless students.

FRA Branch looks forward to upcoming activities

(SUBMITTED PHOTOS) The 14-foot model of the USS Indianapolis has been on display at previous times in front of Denny's at East Main Street and I-65 in Greenwood where the Fraternal Reserve Branch meets for breakfast once a month.

By Al Stilley Editor

The Fleet Reserve Branch 130 has gained new members and is looking forward to various activities this year after coming through the aftermath of the pandemic.

The branch also is known as the USS Indianapolis Memorial Branch. The USS Indianapolis went down in the closing days of World War II after delivering the atomic bomb to Tinian Island where the bomb made its last leg of its journey to Japan via an Air Force bomber.

All shipmates of the sea services can join with FRA members as guests for a tour Thursday, March 30 at 10 a.m. of the Museum of 20th Century Warfare at Fort Harrison, 5807 Glenn Road. The tour will be followed by lunch with shipmates at a nearby restaurant. The organization's next monthly meeting will be Monday, April 3 at the VFW in Greenwood.

Their next monthly informal breakfast is Tuesday, April 11 at 9 a.m. at Denny's, I-65 and Main Street, Greenwood.

The FRA is having a family picnic at Southport Park on Saturday, May 13. And they will take part in the annual Greenwood Freedom Fest on June 24.

The FRA include members of the Navy, Marine Corps, and Coast Guard. Any veterans from the sea services may attend FRA meetings or breakfasts on the Southside.

The increase in activity is due to the lessening of the coronavirus that limited the group's recent travels and activities.

They also are eager to have the 14-foot model of the USS Indianapolis on display more throughout the area. Its home is in the museum at Fort Harrison. The ship has been visible in the downtown Veterans Day Parade and at other area events.

Info: 317-431-0424, or visit: www.fra130indy.org.

The home for the USS Indianapolis model is in the World War II Museum at Fort Harrison. Fleet Reserve Branch 130 members are eager to have the warship on display at various events throughout the year.

MARCH MADNESS

Here we are in the middle of March and as most of us are aware, there are many college basketball games going on about 18 hours per day all over the country. It begins with 68 men's teams and 68 women's teams, 136 NCAA College teams in action.

The boy's Indiana semi-state tournament was also in action. I was always changing television channels while trying to keep up with the teams that I have been following. Back in my younger days, I had teams that I loved and others that I didn't root for at any time. I have stepped back a few steps and now enjoy the games and root for teams that I might have a connection.

The Beech Grove boys' team had a good run this year. They made it to the Semi-State. They traveled to Seymour and played Guerin Catholic in the afternoon. Guerin won 58-46. The Hornets had a very good year.

The IU men's team played and won their game against Kent State. They won by 11 points. This game was totally played after my bedtime. Their second game was played late Sunday that resulted in an upset 85-69 win for Miami (Fla.) against the disappointed Hoosiers.

The IU women's team also won their first game of the tournament, defeating Tennessee Tech by 30 points in Assembly Hall. Their second game against Miami (Fla.) was played late Monday, too late for this week's deadline.

The Purdue men's team lost their first game of the tournament. There have been lots of comments about this game from all types of media and basketball fans.

The Purdue woman's team also lost their first game of the tournament. I have enjoyed following this team for the last couple of years. Head Coach Katie Gearlds completed her second year coaching her Purdue team.

Purdue played St. John's University in Columbus, Ohio. They recovered from a 15-point deficit in the fourth quarter. A last second shot from St. John's made the final score 66-64 for them. I was so excited watching this game. Our dog, Simon decided to leave the room.

I was sort of sad that they lost the game but I was also very impressed and proud of them. The next day, while I was on my computer, I saw a photograph showing Coach Katie Gearlds walking off the court with her arm around No. 5, Cassidy Hardin. That really got to me.

I first met Katie when she was in high school at Beech Grove. I was a school bus driver there. I drove bus No. 5. When Katie started coaching at Purdue last year, I spotted a very good player wearing uniform No. 5. I began paying attention to Cassidy Hardin and was very impressed to find out that she holds the record for number of games (142) played for the women's team at Purdue.

Players were allowed an extra year of eligibility because of Covid. This was her fifth year on the team. She postponed her beginning of medical school at IU. Cassidy always looked to be a very good on-court leader and seemed to always have a great attitude.

I have never met Cassidy in person but after seeing that picture of her and Katie, I'm certain she is a wonderful young lady. She and I have shared a friendship with Katie Gearlds and we have also shared that special number 5.

We also like basketball. So does Katie. Shonk is a 1960 graduate of Southport High School, a '63 grad of Indiana Central College (now the University of Indianapolis) and a retired bus driver from Beech Grove Schools. He can be reached through email at fdshonk@aol.com.

Saints' comeback against Lions helps pave way to Gainbridge Fieldhouse

By Al Stille
Editor

A comeback for the ages propelled underdog Lutheran over Loogootee and that same defensive intensity against Rock Creek Academy produced the Saints' first IHSAA Semistate championship Saturday since 2008 at Washington.

The Saints (19-7) advance to the IHSAA Class A state championship game against unranked Southwood (15-12) at 10:30 a.m. Saturday in Gainbridge Fieldhouse. Lutheran is seeking the program's first state title, having lost their only previous trip in 2008 to Triton.

"Defense and fearless" were the words that Lutheran coach Remus Woods used to describe the 2022-2023 Saints.

They lived up to those words in the final minutes Saturday morning against No. 4 Loogootee. Trailing by 10 points with very few minutes left, the No. 8 Saints ratcheted up their defensive intensity. They trimmed the lead in half within 40 seconds.

"It was desperation at that point," Woods later recalled.

The winning points came on a 3-pointer by sharpshooting senior Durray Smith and layup by sophomore Cayden Loescher, whose late-season improvement has sparked the Saints' drive.

The final count was: Lutheran 67, Loogootee 66. A last-second three-quarter shot by L.J. Ward was waved off by officials.

Smith had a team-high 16 points on five of 12 3-pointers with Kam Patterson adding 14 points and six rebounds, and Loescher 11 points. Ward had five rebounds and four steals.

Between games, the Saints stayed at nearby Barr-Reeve High School where they rested, ate and had a short shoot-around before returning to Washington's famed Hatchet House.

The Saints never trailed in the nightcap in defeating a much taller Rock Creek team, 55-47.

The quick-handed Saints had 16 steals in the nightcap. Loescher led with 14 points and eight rebounds, Smith added 11 points and senior Aiden Alialy grabbed five rebounds.

"Our kids really got after it," Woods said.

The fourth-year coach continued, "We play tough opponents during the season and that prepares us for the playoffs."

The Saints take a 10-game winning streak Saturday morning into Gainbridge Fieldhouse. Info: ihsaa.org

Cayden Loescher (10) scores as the Lutheran bench and crowd roars in closely fought win by the Saints, 67-66 against Loogootee Saturday.

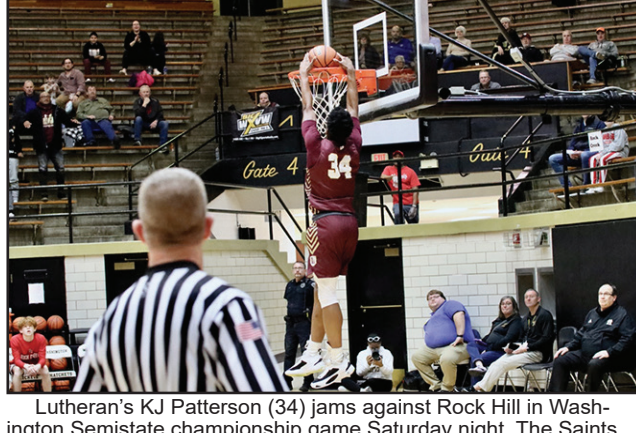

Lutheran's Durray Smith scores on a layup against Rock Hill in semistate title game at Washington. Smith's free throws with less than three seconds left enabled the Saints to defeat Loogootee earlier.

Lutheran backcourt ace L.J. Ward (11) goes hard to the basket against Loogootee. Ward's defensive presence helped Saints come from behind against the Lions.

Sweet 16 Contest attracts advertisers in unpredictable tourney without I.U., Purdue

By Al Stillely
Editor

Of all the millions of brackets entered in ESPN's perfect bracket contest, there are no perfect brackets left in the men's basketball tournament. However, on the Southside, 16 businesses that advertise in The Southsider Voice could be winners because they are entered in a Sweet 16 Contest.

Some businesses, depending upon how their drawn teams do in the tourney, will win free ads.

This has been an unpredictable tourney.

No. 16 Fairleigh Dickinson University, known as FDU, shocked No. 1 Purdue, becoming only the second 16-seed to beat a No. 1-seed in the tourney. FDU fell to C-USA champion Florida Atlantic University, coached by former Indiana University student manager Dusty May, 78-70 Sunday.

Seven high seeds are out of the running, No. 1 Kansas and Purdue, No. 2 Arizona and Marquette, No. 3 Baylor, and No. 4 Virginia and I.U.

I.U. took care of business in its late-night tourney opener Friday by downing Kent State, 71-60. Center Grove product Trayce Jackson-Davis added to his resume with 24 points, 11 rebounds, five blocks, and five assists. Senior forward Race Thomson added 20 points.

The resurgent Hoosiers made it to the second round for the first time since 2016 and the fifth time since 2008. Sunday I.U. ran into a quicker and sharper Miami (Fla.) Hurricane that opened with a ragged win against Drake. I.U. had difficulty in keeping up with the speedy and aggressive Canes, 85-69.

The tournament traditionally settles down in the Sweet 16 with fewer upsets as the No. 1 (Alabama and Houston) and No. 2 seeds (Texas and UCLA) advance. Eleven conferences are represented in the Sweet 16, including three from the Big East and SEC.

East and West Regionals are Thursday and Saturday; South and Midwest Regionals are Friday and Sunday.

EAST REGIONAL

No. 9 FLORIDA ATLANTIC (33-3) SOUTHPORT BARBER – Among quickest and top shooting teams in Sweet 16 ... edged Memphis, 66-65 and downed Cinderella Fairleigh Dickinson Univ. (FDU), 78-70 Sunday ... Darkhorse of Sweet 16.

Vs.
No. 4 TENNESSEE (25-10) DANNY'S TREE – Vols

had to sweat out 3-point first-round win against underdog Louisiana ... played physical game against young Duke for dominating 65-52 win ... off-and-on during regular season ... defensive-minded ... second time in Sweet 16 with veteran coach Rick Barnes.

No. 3 KANSAS STATE (25-9) SLEEPY HOLLOW PET RANCH – Wildcats used their experience and physicality Sunday to get past young Kentucky, 75-69 ... defeated Montana State, 77-65 Friday ... hitting clutch shots ... led by Florida transfer Keyontae Johnson and playmaker Markquis Nowell.

Vs.
No. 7 MICHIGAN STATE (21-12) DUANE LYTLE LANDSCAPING – Coach Tom Izzo, aka Mister March, at it again ... entered tourney with lacklustre 19-12 record ... Izzo traditionally relies on backcourt play and defense in tourney ... won against Southern Cal, 72-62, then upset No. 2 Marquette, 69-60 ... only Big 10 team left ... 19th Sweet 16 for Spartans.

SOUTH REGIONAL

No. 1 ALABAMA (31-5) INDY RENTS – Cruising so far ... won opener 96-75 and Maryland, 73-51, after Brandon Miller awakened for 19 points in second half ... play quick and under control ... second trip to Sweet 16 in three seasons.

Vs.
No. 15 PRINCETON (23-8) DAVE'S TREE – Upset No. 2 Arizona, 59-55 in first game ... followed with 78-63 domination over No. 7 Missouri; 19-2 second-chance points vs. Tigers ... patient well-balanced offense ... only fourth No. 15 seed to reach Sweet 16 ... coach Mitch Henderson on Princeton team that upset UCLA in NCAA tourney.

MIDWEST REGIONAL

No. 1 HOUSTON (33-3) STROHM AUTOMOTIVE – So much for coach Kelvin Sampson's fears of facing No. 9 Auburn in Birmingham ... Cougars got it together in second half, held AU to only 21 points, advanced 81-64 ... helped by return of star player Marcus Sasser.

Vs.
No. 5 MIAMI (27-7) HOFMANN CONCRETE – Canes use quickness and size to advantage ... ended I.U.'s hopes of Sweet 16 berth Sunday ... much sharper against Hoosiers than first-round win against Drake.

No. 3 XAVIER (27-9) QUALITY SUPPLY AND TOOL – Musketeers have balance, average 19 assists per game ... underrated center Jack Nunge, 18 points, in 84-73 win Sunday against No. 11 Pittsburgh ... WEST REGIONAL

No. 8 ARKANSAS (22-13) PROMOTIONS PHOTOGRAPHY – Shirtless coach Eric Musselman waved shirt in celebration in front of 'Hogs fans after upsetting No. 1 Kansas, 72-71 Saturday ... dangerous team ... found way to beat Jayhawks with three players fouled out ... defeated Illinois in first round, 73-63 ... trying for Elite 8 for third straight year.

Vs.
No. 4 CONNECTICUT (27-8) B. DAVIS REMODELING – Dominated St. Mary's, 70-55 Sunday ... Huskies earlier dumped Iona, 87-63 ... Adama Sanogo 52 points in two games ... UConn has size, balance, intensity ... first trip to Sweet 16 since national championship in 2014.

No. 3 GONZAGA (30-5) MIKE HEIMEL AUCTIONS – Zags not Western powerhouse as past years ... tourney surge has Zags rolling ... eighth straight trip to Sweet 16 ... bounced Grand Canyon 72-60 in opener, then edged TCU, 84-81 ... Drew Timme still among best "biggs" in NCAA.

Vs.
No. 2 UCLA (31-5) SPALDING JEWELERS – Bruins downed No. 7 Northwestern, 68-63 Saturday after easy first-round win ... strong inside out with fifth-year guard David Singleton, ankle, questionable ... also without injured top defender Jaylen Clark.

Best wishes to all of the businesses!

HOROSCOPE

ARIES (March 21 to April 19) The adventurous Aries won't be disappointed with taking on a new challenge, despite some initial misgivings. Look for this move to open other opportunities down the line.

TAURUS (April 20 to May 20) Let that beautiful Bovine smile not only put you at ease, but also show that you're ready, willing and more than able to confound the naysayers around you. Also, a new admirer has important news.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 20) Be careful how you handle a relationship that you're hoping to save. You already have the facts on your side. Avoid weakening your position by embellishing it with unnecessary dramatics.

CANCER (June 21 to July 22) Taking definitive stands isn't easy for the often-wavering Moon Child. But you not only need to stay with your decision, but also reassure others that it was the right thing to do.

LEO (July 23 to August 22) As a proud Lion, you're right to be upset about those who might be lying about you to others. But the best revenge is proving them wrong by succeeding at what you set out to do.

VIRGO (August 23 to September 22) Caution is still advised before making a financial commitment to a "promising" project. Look for the facts behind the fluff. Meanwhile, devote the weekend to loved ones.

LIBRA (September 23 to October 22) A Taurus offers comfort and advice as you deal with an upsetting event. Use this as a learning experience that will help you avoid similar problems in the future.

SCORPIO (October 23 to November 21) A romantic situation creates some chaos for single Scorpios. But it's well worth the effort to work things out. A trusted friend can offer some helpful advice.

SAGITTARIUS (November 22 to December 21) Expect to make new friends as your social circle expands. Also, remember to tell that family member how proud you are of their achievements.

CAPRICORN (December 22 to January 19) New ventures continue to be favored. With your self-confidence rising all the time, you'll want to see how well you can do with a new challenge. So, go to it.

AQUARIUS (January 20 to February 18) This is a good time for the usually serious-minded Aquarian to let loose and enjoy some fun times. Expect to get good news about a workplace issue.

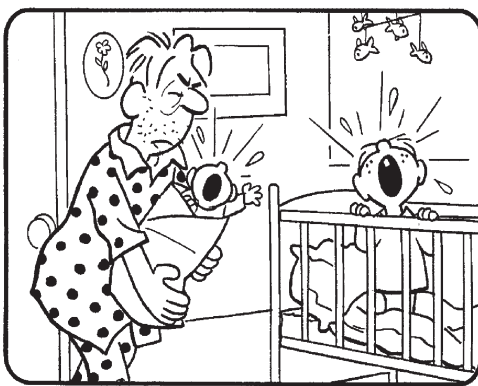

PISCES (February 19 to March 20) Changed plans might upset some people, but

Fouls costly as Hornets eliminated

By Steve Page
Correspondent

SEYMOUR - Cam Brown said it all for he and his Beech Grove teammates following Saturday's semi-state basketball game.

"It just wasn't our day," said the 6-6 Brown, one of eight Hornet seniors.

"Guerin Catholic was playing well, defending well," he continued. "They were knocking down shots. Every time we hit a basket, they hit a basket."

Aided by Beech Grove's early foul troubles, the Golden Eagles pushed ahead in the second quarter and remained there, stopping the Hornets 58-46 in Saturday's second semifinal at Seymour High School.

Guerin, 20-8, then defeated Scottsburg 56-40 to win the semi-state title and advance to the Class 3A championship game.

The defending state champion Hornets finished 17-7 after the final game for Brown and his senior teammates - Adrian Holland, Skyleer Thacker, Jaleel Edwards, Jeremiah Tate, Jeremiah Alexander, Rylan Horen and Logan Muffler.

"I'm damn proud of this group," said first-year coach Joe Rihm. "That's a tough way to end the season, with everything this class has accomplished."

"This group had almost 60 wins. They ought to be damn proud of themselves. They were 14-2 with a state tournament, sweet 16, elite 8 and champions."

They were all of that in the last three seasons, two under Rihm and former coach Mike Renfro, going 55-20. Renfro and Rihm both succeeded the late Matt

English.

This team had shown the ability to smother its opponents, come back from deficits and put together winning rallies.

Just not on Saturday.

After scoring just five points in the second quarter, the Hornets opened the second half with a nice Alley Oop layup, but they went cold again.

In previous games, the Hornets have battled back no matter what.

But all those early fouls mounted up. So much so, that Guerin found itself shooting double-bonus free throws with 2:39 remaining in the third quarter.

That situation also forced the Hornets to soften their defense. They scored just nine points in the third period and found themselves trailing 44-29 after Lucas Parker knocked down a three-point buzzer beater as time expired in the quarter.

The Golden Eagles, despite managing just two field goals in the final frame, responded by converting 10 of 15 free throws in that span.

Brown led the Hornets by scoring 13 points, eight in the final eight minutes. Alexander scored 10, Edwards 9, Tate 6, Holland 5 for his team's only points in the second period, and Horen 3.

To their credit, the Hornets converted all eight of their free throws, while Guerin was 16 of 26. Sophomore Bryson Cardinal led the Golden Eagles with 15.

"The fouls early got us out of our game," Rihm said. "With those fouls, we weren't able to get up, get into it."

"We just couldn't get shots to fall. That was a big difference in the ballgame."

After meeting with his players for an extended post-game session, Rihm sent them back out, where they were greeted and consoled by families and friends.

"Coach English had the vision," Rihm said. "He saw this group coming."

"This senior group has set the foundation - no, the expectations - for what Beech Grove basketball is. Now, they can continue that."

Beech Grove players share hugs and tears with family members following Saturday's semi-state semifinal at Seymour.

Dreyer Reinbold drivers big part of buzz about Indy 500 in May

By Al Stille
Editor

Multiple-motor-sports team owner Dennis Reinbold was in California recently for the championship rounds of the NRX Rallycross Series for FCI-S all-electric vehicles.

No worries if that alphabet soup is confusing because the topic out West also turned to the two Dreyer Reinbold Racing (DRR) entries in the 107th Indianapolis 500 with drivers Stefan Wilson and 2014 Indianapolis 500 winner Ryan Hunter-Reay.

Hunter-Reay was announced last week, but Wilson was with Reinbold, who owns an auto dealership in Greenwood, at the Rallycross event in California and took time for an exclusive interview with The Southsider Voice.

Obviously, the "500" was a big part of the buzz during the NRX Rallycross Series. Wilson and Reinbold are ecstatic that Hunter-Reay is on board. Wilson and the 500 winner were teammates in 2015 and 2021 with a different team.

"It's good to have that relationship with Ryan," said Wilson, brother of the late Justin Wilson who was fatally injured in an IndyCar race at Pocono in 2015. "Our setups are similar. His past experience will be a big team asset."

Reinbold landed Hunter-Reay after the Floridian driver had visited the Dreyer-Reinbold race shop several times on Indy's northside.

"He (Ryan) has a comfort level after seeing our shop and realizing that being in a 500-only mode makes us well-prepared. Ryan was impressed," Reinbold said. "He's a proven winner at the Speedway and a tremendously talented driver."

Hunter-Reay joins former 500 winners Al Unser Jr., Buddy Lazier, and Buddy Rice among the 45 previous DRR drivers since 2000. And he returns to Chevrolet power which he utilized in winning the 2012 Indy Car Series.

After a 12-year run with Andretti Autosport and longtime DHL backing, Formula One veteran Roman Grosjean inherited that seat. Without a ride in 2021, Hunter-Reay coached Hollinger Racing rook Callum Iott for last year's 500. In three of his last four starts for Andretti, Hunter-Reay finished fifth, eighth and 10th.

However, Hunter-Reay, 42, vowed that he would return to the 500 in a competitive ride.

After a year's absence from the "500," Hunter-Reay admits that he is once-again "laser-focused and energized" with DRR and that "the Indy 500 isn't just a motor race, for me; it's a way of life."

"DRR is a streamlined program that puts all its energy into the month of May," Hunter-Reay stated in a news release last week. "I guess you can say I'm going back to my roots, considering how I started my IndyCar career with smaller teams that took the fight to the bigger efforts and won. If you look at DRR's record at Indy and their impressive recent results, the pool of talented engineers and crew; it's a perfect fit."

Hunter-Reay has 18 career IndyCar wins and an Indy 500 career that includes five starts among the top seven and six top-10 finishes as well as his 2014 win.

The entry for Hunter-Reay is the 33rd entry for the upcoming May 28 classic.

DRR consistently has fielded entries that have finished among the top 10, including fourth place in 2012 with Oriol Servia, seventh with Sage Karam in 2021, and 10th with Santino Ferrucci last year.

Hunter-Reay is assigned the No. 23 DRR entry with Wilson in the No. 24 joint DRR entry with Cusick Motorsports. Wilson's best "500" finish is 15th in 2018 after leading with only four laps to go.

British driver Stefan Wilson joins Dreyer Reinbold Racing for the Indianapolis 500.
